

John 13:34-35

By this all men will KNOW

LOVE ONE ANOTHER

John 13:34-35

I give you a new command: Love one another. Just as I have loved you, you are also to love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another. (CSB)

HOW CHRIST LOVES US

HOW WE'RE TO LOVE EACH OTHER

WHY THIS MATTERS

FOR THOUGHT & TALK

In your small group take no more than 5 minutes to review the main points of this week's message. Don't expect to answer all the questions. Just choose to discuss the ones your group would.

1. How did Christ's example of love completely redefine the commandment from Leviticus 19:18? In what ways are we called to follow this example in our own lives?
2. What are some people/groups/ideologies that you find personally difficult to love and why is it hard for you to love them?
3. How is the Biblical definition of love both a soft theology and a tough theology?
4. Jesus says that our ability to love others will be the metric by which the world knows us as disciples. What assumptions/conclusions would people make about you based on the way you treat your family? Your Friends? Your co-workers? Strangers? Enemies?
5. What are some practical steps you can take in 2023 that will help to create community both inside and outside the church?