Prelude Music

Processional Hymn Lift High the Cross

(refrain)

Lift high the cross, the love of Christ proclaim till all the world adore his sacred name

1) Come, Christians, follow this triumphant sign.
The hosts of God in unity combine.

(refrain)

2) Each newborn servant of the Crucified
bears on the brow the seal of Christ who died.

(refrain)

3) O Lord, once lifted on the glorious tree
as thou hast promised, draw the world to thee.

(refrain)

4) So shall our song of triumph ever be:
Praise to the Crucified for victory!

(refrain)

Greeting and Prayer Bishop Leonard Fairley

The grace of Jesus Christ be with you all.

People: And also with you.

We come together to praise God, to hear the Holy Word, and to seek for ourselves and others the power, presence, and direction of the Holy Spirit. Let us pray:

Eternal God, by Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit you gave to your apostles many excellent gifts. Give your grace to all servants of your church, that we may with joy and faithfulness fulfill our various ministries. Grant that we your people may follow where you lead, perfect our ministries, and live in joyful obedience to your will, through Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

(The people are seated.)

WE REMEMBER OUR BAPTISM AND AFFIRM OUR COMMON MINISTRY

(The bishop, standing near the baptismal font, begins:)

Ministry is the work of God, done by the people of God. Through baptism all Christians are made part of the priesthood of all believers, the church, Christ's body, made visible in the world.

During this service, words of the hymns are to be read silently while the music is playing.

We all share in Christ's ministry of love and service for the redemption of the human family and the whole of creation.

Therefore, in celebration of our common ministry, I call upon all God's people gathered here:

(The bishop scoops and pours water from the font and says:)

Remember your baptism and be thankful.

We remember our baptism and affirm our common ministry.

Greetings from the Council of Bishops..... Bishop Paul L. Leeland

PRESENTATION OF PERSONS TO BE LICENSED, CERTIFIED, COMMISSIONED, AND ORDAINED

(Those who are to be licensed, certified as lay missionaries, commissioned and ordained are presented to the bishop.)

(John Hall, Conference Lay Leader)

This day, these are the witnesses who have come forth from among us. They are responding to their call by the Holy Spirit to set apart ministry. Bishop Fairley, on behalf of the laity of local congregations who have examined and approved these candidates, we present these persons who are certified as lay ministers;

(Brenda Brown, Deaconess)

We present this person to be commissioned as a deaconess;

(Laura Fine Ledford, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry)

and on behalf of the district committees on ordained ministry and the Board of Ordained Ministry of this annual conference, which has recommended these persons, and this annual conference, which has approved them, we present these persons who are licensed for pastoral ministry, these persons to be commissioned for ministry, and these persons to be ordained as deacons and elders.

(After the candidates have been presented, they remain standing, and the bishop says:)

These persons are by God's grace to be licensed, certified, commissioned, and ordained to ministry in Christ's holy church.

Those authorized by the church to inquire about them have discerned that they are persons of sound learning and of Christian character, and possess the necessary signs of God's grace, and have demonstrated a profound commitment to serve Jesus Christ.

Therefore, we believe them to be duly called to serve God.

We ask you, people of God, to declare your assent to the licensing, certifying, commissioning, or ordaining of these persons.

Do you trust that they are worthy, by God's grace, to be licensed, certified, commissioned, or ordained?

We do! Thanks be to God!

Will you uphold them in their ministry?

With God's help, we will!

(The bishop, presenters, and candidates are seated.)

PROCLAMATION OF GOD’S WORD AND RESPONSE

Hymn..... Here I Am, Lord

I, the Lord, of sea and sky, I have heard my people cry.
All who dwell in dark and sin my hand will save.
I who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright.
Who will bear my light to them? whom shall I send?

(refrain)

Here I am, Lord. Is it I, Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night.
I will go, Lord, if you lead me.
I will hold your people in my heart.

I, the Lord of snow and rain, I have borne my people’s pain
I have wept for love of them. They turn away.
I will break their hearts of stone, give them hearts for love alone
I will speak my word to them. Whom shall I send?

(refrain)

I, the Lord of wind and flame, I will tend the poor and lame.
I will set a feast for them. My hand will save.
Finest bread I will provide till their hearts be satisfied.
I will give my life to them. Whom shall I send?

(refrain)

Prayer for IlluminationRev. Edith Salazar-Veliz

Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead;

he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

GENERAL EXAMINATION

(All are seated except the candidates and the bishop, who stand facing one another.)

(The bishop examines the candidates:)

Licensing, commissioning, and ordination are gifts from God to the church and are exercised in covenant with the whole church and within the covenant of the office and order.

My sisters and brothers in Christ, you have been called to licensed, commissioned, or ordained ministry. The church now confirms your calling.

By the grace of God, you are to be coworkers with the laity, bishops, deacons, diaconal ministers, local pastors, associate members, commissioned ministers, and elders.

Remember that you are called to serve rather than to be served, to proclaim the faith of the church and no other, to look after the concerns of God above all.

So that we may know that you believe yourselves to be called by God and that you profess the Christian faith, we ask you:

Do you believe that God has called you to the life and work of licensed, commissioned, or ordained ministry?

I do so believe.

Do you believe in the Triune God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and confess Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior?

I do so believe and confess.

Are you persuaded that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments contain all things necessary for salvation through faith in Jesus Christ and are the unique and authoritative standard for the church's faith and life?

I am so persuaded, by God's grace.

Will you be faithful in prayer, in the study of the Holy Scriptures, and with the help of the Holy Spirit continually rekindle the gift of God that is in you?

I will, with the help of God.

Will you do your best to pattern your life in accordance with the teachings of Christ?

I will, with the help of God.

Will you, in the exercise of your ministry, lead the people of God to faith in Jesus Christ, to participate in the life and work of the community, and to seek peace, justice, and freedom for all people?

I will, with the help of God.

(The bishop addresses the candidates:)

May God, who has given you the will to do these things, give you grace to perform them, that the work begun in you may be brought to perfection.

(All audibly affirm the action, saying: Amen.)

(Candidates for licensing, commissioning and ordination are seated.)

THE COMMISSIONING OF THE DEACONESS

(The presiding bishop examines the candidate.)

The Ministry of DeaconessMs. Brenda Brown

Bishop Fairley: The call of God is always profound, and our response can be no less extraordinary. In the varied ministries of love, justice and service to which the Holy Spirit is leading you, you will testify to the infinite love of God in Christ Jesus. Such a lifetime vocation confers a great privilege; it also lays upon you a solemn responsibility. In your consecration, you publicly declared your commitment:

- To engage in this lifelong work of love, justice and service and to assume its responsibilities led by the Spirit of God.
- To be diligent in prayer, in the reading of the Holy Scriptures, in mutual relationship with the communities you serve and in all other means of grace available to you.
- To earnestly seek to carry forward your ministry call in sincerity and in love under the direction of the Church.
- To accept responsibility for participation in the mutually supportive deaconess and home missionary covenant community and for a lifetime of loving and supporting your sisters and brothers as part of the world diaconate.

Do you now affirm these commitments publicly in the presence of this assembly?

I do so publicly affirm these declarations with God being my helper.

Today, we send you forth with our blessings and support.

(Those to be commissioned kneel as able. Designated representatives from the community assist the bishop in the laying on of hands.)

(The bishop, laying both hands upon the candidate, prays:)

Name, I commission you to the appointed ministry of [name appointment] on behalf of The United Methodist Church.

Let us pray:

Most Gracious God, source of all mercies, anoint this your servant with your Holy Spirit, enrich her with your grace, and strengthen her for the tasks which lie ahead.

May her labors glorify your holy name, as she continues her daily work in ministries of love, justice and service on behalf of The United Methodist Church. Through your Son Jesus Christ we pray. Amen.

(The candidate for commissioning as deaconess moves back to her seat.)

(“Halle, Halle Halleluja”)

THE COMMISSIONING OF PROVISIONAL MEMBERS FOR SERVICE

INTRODUCTION

(The bishop introduces the act of commissioning:)

Throughout Christian history, the church has commissioned people for leadership and service. This commissioning is always a response to the guidance of the Holy Spirit, who calls and sends women and men to share in Christ's ministry.

In the early stages of ministerial service, ordained leaders walk with commissioned leaders to mentor and form them in Christ's ministry, just as Ananias, the more seasoned leader, guided Paul, the newly-called evangelist, toward the fullness of his calling. (Acts 9)

EXAMINATION

(The bishop examines the candidates to be commissioned:)

Brothers and sisters in Christ, this is a solemn hour in your life and the life of the church. You have shared in the ministry of all the baptized and have witnessed to Christ's call to leadership among the people of God.

Serving among us as faithful disciples, you have shown gifts and graces for leading the people of God in living and proclaiming the gospel to all people.

Do you believe that God has called you to the life and work of a commissioned minister?

I do so believe.

Will you give yourself fully to the work of God in the world and to servant leadership in the life and work of Christ's church?

I will, with the help of God.

(The bishop addresses the candidates:)

May God, who has given you the will to do these things, give you the grace to perform them, that the work begun in you may be brought to perfection. Amen.

PRAYER OF COMMISSIONING

(The bishop, extending arms over all the candidates, prays:)

God of the apostles and prophets, of the martyrs and teachers, you raise up men and women to be apostolic leaders in your church.

By your Holy Spirit help these, your servants, to understand and live the mystery of your love with boldness and joy.

Deepen their sense of purpose as they exercise commissioned ministry.

Empower them, with all of your people, to heal the sick, love the outcast, resist evil, preach the Word, and to give themselves freely for your name's sake.

(Family members and friends are invited to stand where they are for silent prayer during the laying on of hands for each commissioned minister.)

("Jesu, Jesu")

*Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love,
Show us how to serve the neighbors we have from you.*

(The bishop, extending hands over each candidate, prays:)

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon Name.

Send him/her now to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ, to announce the reign of God, and to equip the church for ministry, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

(All audibly affirm the action, saying: Amen.)

(The newly commissioned ministers return to their seats.)

PRAYER

(After all the candidates have been commissioned, the bishop says:)

Let us pray.

(Then all but those being commissioned pray:)

Almighty God, may the grace of ministry rest upon these your servants and may the opportunity to serve lead them into the fullness of your calling. Clothe them with your righteousness, and grant that they may glorify you by giving themselves to others, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

(“Halle, Halle, Halleluja”)

*Halle, Halle, Halleluja! Halle, Halle, Halleluja!
Halle, Halle, Halleluja! Halleluja! Halleluja!*

(The candidates for ordination as deacons come forward.)

(“Take, O Take Me as I Am”)

*Take, O take me as I am; summon out what I shall be;
Set your seal upon my heart. And live in me.*

THE ORDAINING OF DEACONS

The Ministry of Deacons Rev. Joyce Day

EXAMINATION

Bishop Fairley: A deacon is called to share in Christ’s ministry of servanthood, to relate the life of the community to its service in the world, to lead others into Christian discipleship, to nurture disciples for witness and service,

(Here a large Bible is lifted by an assistant.)

to lead in worship, to teach and proclaim God’s Word, to assist elders and local pastors at Holy Baptism and Holy Communion, to interpret to the church the world’s hurts and hopes, to serve all people, particularly the poor, the sick, and the oppressed, and to lead Christ’s people in ministries of compassion and justice, liberation and reconciliation, even in the face of hardship and personal sacrifice. These are the duties of a deacon.

(Here a towel and basin with pitcher may be lifted by an assistant.)

Do you believe that God has called you to the life and work of a deacon?

I do so believe.

Will you, for the sake of the church's life and mission covenant to participate in the order of deacons? Will you give yourself to God through the order of deacons in order to sustain and build each other up in prayer, study, worship, and service?

I will, with the help of God, and with the help of my sisters and brothers in the order of deacons.

LAYING ON OF HANDS AND PRAYER FOR DEACONS

(The bishop, facing the deacon candidates, calls the people to prayer:)

As these persons are ordained by God and the church for the ministry of the deacon to which we believe they have been called by the Holy Spirit, let us pray for them.

(The bishop, with hands extended over the candidates, prays:)

We thank you, Lord God, that in your great love you sent Jesus Christ to take the form of a servant, becoming obedient even to death on the cross, and now resurrected and exalted in the heavens. You have taught us, by his word and example, that whoever would be great among us must be servant of all.

Give these servants grace to be faithful to their promises, constant in their discipleship, and always ready for the works of loving service.

Make them modest and humble, gentle and strong, rooted and grounded in love. Give them a share in the ministry of Jesus Christ, who came not to be served but to serve.

(“Jesu, Jesu”)

*Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love,
Show us how to serve the neighbors we have from you.*

(The bishop lays both hands on the head of the ordinand, praying:)

Almighty God, pour upon Name the Holy Spirit for the office and work of a deacon in Christ's holy church.

(All audibly affirm the action, saying: Amen.)

(Immediately the ordinand places a hand on the Bible as the bishop lays hands on the ordinand's hands and says:)

Name, take authority as a deacon to proclaim the Word of God, and to lead God's people to serve in the world, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

(All audibly affirm the action, saying: Amen.)

(“Halle, Halle, Halleluja”)

*Halle, Halle, Halleluja! Halle, Halle, Halleluja!
Halle, Halle, Halleluja! Halleluja! Halleluja!*

(The newly ordained deacons return to their seats.)

(The candidates for ordination as elders come forward.)

("Take, O Take Me as I Am")

*Take, O take me as I am; summon out what I shall be;
Set your seal upon my heart. And live in me.*

THE ORDAINING OF ELDERS

The Ministry of Elders.....Rev. Seyun Hwang

Bishop Fairley: Do you believe that God has called you to the life and work of an elder?
I do so believe.

Will you, for the sake of the church's life and mission, covenant to participate in the order of elders? Will you give yourself to God through the order of elders in order to sustain and build each other up in prayer, study, worship, and service?

I will, with the help of God, and the help of my sisters and brothers in the Order of Elders.

LAYING ON OF HANDS AND PRAYER FOR ELDERS

(The bishop, facing the elder candidates, calls the people to prayer:)

As these persons are ordained by God and the church for the ministry of elders to which we believe they have been called by the Holy Spirit, let us pray for them.

(The bishop, with hands extended over those being ordained, prays:)

We praise you, eternal God, because you have called us to be a priestly people, offering to you acceptable worship through Jesus Christ, our Lord, Apostle and High Priest, Shepherd, and Bishop of our souls.

We thank you that, by dying, Christ has overcome death and, having ascended into heaven, has poured forth gifts abundantly on your people, making some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry, to build up Christ's body, and to fulfill your gracious purpose in the world.

Give to these your servants the grace and power they need to serve you in this ministry. Make them faithful pastors, patient teachers, and wise counselors.

Enable them to serve without reproach, to proclaim the gospel of salvation, to administer the sacraments of the new covenant, and to offer with all your people spiritual sacrifices acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

("Jesu, Jesu")

*Jesu, Jesu, fill us with your love,
Show us how to serve the neighbors we have from you.*

(Representatives from the laity and the order of elders who are to join in the laying on of hands stand with the bishop. The candidates for ordination as an elder move to the altar.)

(When the bishop lays hands on the head of the candidate, others may lay hands on the candidate's back or shoulders.)

(Family members and friends may stand where they are for silent prayer during the laying on of hands for each ordinand.)

(The bishop lays both hands on the ordinand, praying:)

Almighty God, pour upon Name the Holy Spirit, for the office and work of an elder in Christ's holy church.

(All audibly affirm the action, saying: Amen.)

(Immediately the candidate places hands on a Bible as the bishop says:)

Name, take authority as an elder to preach the Word of God, and to administer the Holy Sacraments, and to order the life of the Church, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

(All audibly affirm the action, saying: Amen.)

("Halle, Halle, Halleluja")

*Halle, Halle, Halleluja! Halle, Halle, Halleluja!
Halle, Halle, Halleluja! Halleluja! Halleluja!*

WE ARE SENT FORTH FOR MINISTRY IN THE WORLD

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Let us pray.

We thank you, gracious God, for raising up among us faithful servants. Clothe them with your righteousness as they go forth, and grant that we, with them, may glorify you by giving ourselves generously to others. Amen.

Recessional Hymn Sent Forth by God's Blessing

- 1) Sent forth by God's blessing, our true faith confessing,
The people of God from this dwelling take leave.
The service is ended, O now be extended
The fruits of our worship in all who believe.
The seed of the teaching, receptive souls reaching,
Shall blossom in action for God and for all.
God's grace did invite us, and love shall unite us
To work for God's kingdom and answer the call.

2) With praise and thanksgiving to God ever living,
 The tasks of our everyday life we will face.
 Our faith ever sharing, in love ever caring,
 Embracing God's children of each tribe and race.
 With your grace you feed us, with your light now lead us;
 Unite us as one in the life that we share.
 Then may all the living with praise and thanksgiving
 Give honor to Christ and that name which we bear.

Dismissal with Blessing

(Newly ordained deacon Adam Ledbetter-Bock blesses the people:)

The grace of Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

(Bishop Fairley sends the people forth:)

As you have received, freely give.
 Go, to share generously in Christ's ministry. Amen.
