Speakers:

Pastor Lois Blakes is the Founder and Director of the Free Spirit Women of Victory, a ministry established to address the comprehensive needs of women –spiritually, emotionally, and physically. She is dedicated to equipping women to effectively navigate and overcome challenges, fostering resilience and empowerment. Pastor Blakes is an alumna of New Orleans Public Schools and holds degrees from Southern University and Xavier University of New Orleans. Additionally, she is a graduate of the Christian Bible College of Louisiana.

Elder Carolyn Polk Haley is an accomplished conference and seminar speaker with experience addressing both religious and secular audiences. She was mentored by the late Prophet Robert C. Blakes, Sr., and holds several leadership roles within New Home Ministries, presently serving at the East location. In 2001, she co-authored the booklet “Experiencing the Prophetic.” Elder Haley is also the founder of “God’s Grace Ministries,” which emphasizes outreach through Bible teaching programs.

Minister Javalyn Session is a committed member of New Home Ministries – Uptown location, where she contributes in multiple capacities, including as a Sunday morning moderator, leader within the young adult ministry, and volunteer for the children’s church. She began her ministerial journey in 2014 and, in 2024, responded to her calling with conviction and dedication. In addition to her service within the ministry, she is an accomplished educator and serves as an assistant principal at the middle school level.

Elder Tonchelle Ward is a member of New Home Ministries, Uptown. She is recognized as an author, motivational speaker, and counselor, as well as a devoted servant of God. As the founder and Overseer of Girl Code Women’s Ministry, she encourages women to reflect on their lives and align themselves with Biblical values and sound doctrine. In 2019, she published her debut book, “The Girl Code; How to Love Yourself in God.” Elder Ward was ordained in 2023 and holds both a Bachelor and Master degree from Southern University of New Orleans.
