

Discipleship Follow-Up for Sunday 6/14/26

This week's message challenged us to ask a simple but searching question: Can people recognize that we have been with Jesus? Transformation is not just a private feeling or a spiritual idea—it is a life shaped so deeply by Christ that our words, prayers, and actions begin to reflect Him. In Acts 4, Peter and John were recognized not because of their status, education, or personality, but because they had been with Jesus. That same invitation is before us.

As you walk through this week, take time to examine where your mind is being transformed and where it may still be tempted to conform. Are your conversations pointing people to Jesus or drawing attention to yourself? Are your prayers centered on comfort and control, or are they shaped by boldness, surrender, and the advancement of God's kingdom? A transformed mind produces a transformed witness. It leads us to speak with courage, pray with unity, and live in a way that makes Jesus visible to others.

Here are a few ways to respond this week:

- Spend time in prayer asking the Holy Spirit for boldness to speak God's words, not just your own opinions.
- Ask the Lord to show you one area where you are still holding on to control instead of fully surrendering to Him.
- Look for one opportunity this week to speak about Jesus naturally and courageously with someone around you.
- Reflect on this question: If someone watched my life this week, would they see more of me or more of Jesus?

Prayer: Jesus, transform my mind so that my life reflects You. Fill me with boldness through Your Spirit. Let my words, actions, and prayers point people to You. Teach me to surrender fully, to live as Your ambassador, and to move where Your Spirit leads. Amen.
