

Year of The Camel

Year 5783

Working on myself, body, soul, and spirit...
so that I will be able to adequately handle
my year of abundance!!!

DAY 12-13

Romans 12:14-15 - Bless them which persecute you: bless and curse not. Rejoice with them that do rejoice and weep with them that weep.

Matthew 5: 44 - But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you!

1 Peter 3:9 ESV - Do not repay evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary, BLESS.

- Big question tonight... how do I love those that are unlovely and how do I love those that persecute me?

1. The answer PRAY FOR THEM!!

Luke 6:28 - Bless them that curse you and pray for them which despitefully use you!

1. Action not reaction

- Weeping with those that weep; the reality is this people don't care how much you know, and how much you are saved, and how much you're a good Christian until they know for surety how much you care about them. In the ancient days they have professional mourners, people that would just come and cry with another person, not necessarily even knowing them, but there's something about when you are in a bad place and someone will take sympathy with what you are going through and cry it out with you....so Bible says, we must find a way to feel the pain of those that are worshipping next to us!

Year of The Camel

Year 5783 DAY 12-13

John 16:20 ESV – Truly, truly, I say to you, you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice.

You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn into joy.

Romans 12:15 - Weep with those who weep

Psalms 30:5 - For his anger endures, but a moment in his favor is life weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

- Weeping does not last forever, but it brings victory, release and joy even in the natural. Biologically our tears are to cleanse the dirt out of our eyes, any debris that would get in our eyes, immediately our eyes begin to tear to release the debris when we come in agreement with someone else's tears, it releases a command that dirt and debris cannot stand. My joy must come. My victory must be released.
