John 1:35-42 (NIV)

The very first movement of the Gospel is RELATIONAL.

Before miracles, sermons, or crowds—there is a brother bringing a brother to meet Jesus.

John 1:35-42 (NIV)

35 The next day John was there again with two of his disciples.

36 When he saw Jesus passing by, he said, "Look, the Lamb of God!"

37 When the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus.

38 Turning around, Jesus saw them following and asked, "What do you want?" They said, "Rabbi" (which means "Teacher"), "where are you staying?"

39 "Come," he replied, "and you will see." So, they went and saw where he was staying, and they spent that day with him. It was about four in the afternoon.

40 Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard what John had said and who had followed Jesus.

41 The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother Simon and tell him, "We have found the Messiah".

42 And he brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, "You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas" (which, when translated, is Peter).

The deep need for relational evangelism:

The deep need for relational evangelism:

- People today are not looking for a program—
they're looking for a person who will walk with them in life.

- People who come to “see about Jesus”, do so because someone they trust invited them.
