

A Christian Is...

Loving

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

How can we practically demonstrate agape love in our daily interactions with others?

In what ways can we better cultivate a heart that reflects God's unconditional love towards those who may not deserve it?

What are some specific examples from our lives that exemplify loving others sacrificially?

How does understanding the different types of love help us in our relationships and our expression of faith?

What steps can we take to ensure our faith is expressed through acts of love rather than just words or beliefs?

How can we show love to our friends in a way that aligns with what Jesus taught about love?

Why do you think it's important to differentiate between the various types of love in our relationships?

What are some ways we can overcome feelings of selfishness to love others better?

How might understanding God's love for us shape how we interact with those around us?

What does it mean for you personally to love someone unconditionally, and how can you practice it this week?