

Verses to Live by

Romans 12:1 – God Calls Us to Give Him Everything

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

How can we identify our own 'Kairos moments' in life and respond to God's call to give everything?

In what areas of your life are you currently holding back from God, and how can you work to surrender those areas?

What does it mean for you personally to live simply, and how can you apply that concept this week?

How can we start building the habit of generosity with our time, talents, and treasures in practical ways?

How does the concept of an eternal perspective affect your day-to-day decisions and interactions?

What does giving God everything look like for a young person in today's world?

How can you cultivate a habit of generosity among your friends and peers this week?

Can you identify any 'Kairos moments' in your life that shaped your faith?

In what specific ways can you simplify your life to focus more on your relationship with God?

How can understanding that this life isn't the end influence your choices and actions in school and at home?