Strangers

What Do We Do When Following Jesus Gets Hard?

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

How can we embody the virtues of unity of mind, sympathy, love, compassion, and humility in our daily interactions?

In what ways can we show kindness and compassion to those who hold different beliefs from us?

What specific challenges do you face in maintaining your Christian principles in a culture that often opposes them?

How do you approach friendships with those who may disagree with your faith or values?

How can we prepare ourselves to share our faith in a respectful manner, especially when facing ridicule or persecution?