

Discipleship: A Path to Christ-Likeness

Give

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

What does the Bible teach about the condition of our hearts when we give to God?

How does the story of Cain and Abel reflect on our own giving habits?

In what ways can we demonstrate our faith in God through our giving?

Why is it significant that Jesus highlighted the widow's offering in the context of sacrificial giving?

What steps can we take to reassess our priorities regarding money and possessions in our lives?

How can we practically incorporate giving into our financial planning?

What are some creative ways we can give back to our community, especially during the holiday season?

How can understanding the biblical perspective of giving change the way we view our financial struggles?

In what ways can giving generously impact our personal relationships and community involvement?