

Strangers: Following Jesus in a world that doesn't always understand us

Born Again

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

How does understanding our new birth in Christ influence our daily decisions and actions?

In what ways can we actively choose hope despite the challenges we face?

What steps can we take to ensure our hope is rooted in the promises of God and not in our circumstances?

How can the concept of a heavenly inheritance change our perspective on earthly possessions and wealth?

How can we support each other in choosing joy during difficult times as a community of faith?

What does it mean to you to have a 'living hope' in your daily life?

How can you encourage a friend who is struggling to see hope in their life?

What are some practical ways you can show your faith and hope in God at school or in your friend group?

How do you handle peer pressure to conform versus holding on to your Christian identity?

In what ways do you think suffering can help you grow in your faith and character?