

Strangers: Following Jesus in a world that doesn't always understand us

Can I follow Jesus without going to Church?

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

How can we work together as a community to rid ourselves of negative attitudes that harm our relationships?

What specific spiritual disciplines can you commit to this week to cultivate a deeper craving for God's presence?

In moments of pressure, how can we remind ourselves to respond with love rather than anger?

What does being a 'living stone' in the church look like in your daily life?

How can you intentionally engage with others in the church to foster accountability and support?

What are some common pressures you face, and how do you usually respond?

Can you identify a time when you acted in a way that didn't reflect your values? What would you do differently now?

How can you prioritize your relationship with God in a busy or stressful week?

In what ways can you connect more with friends in your church community?

What does it mean to you to crave 'spiritual milk'? How can that look in your life?