

Hot One's

What does the Bible say about the shifting cultural values of sex, relationships, gender, and identify?

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

How can understanding God's design for gender and marriage help us navigate today's cultural values?

In what ways can we model Christ's love to those who have different beliefs regarding sexuality and gender?

What specific actions can we take to demonstrate God's love to individuals living outside of biblical values?

How can the phrase 'Love those who don't believe what you believe' influence your interactions with others?

In light of today's sermon, what steps can you take to encourage open conversations about these topics within your community?

What does it mean for you to live your truth in a culture that often contradicts biblical teachings?

How can you support friends who are struggling with their identity while holding onto your own faith?

What challenges do you face regarding cultural norms about relationships, and how can your faith guide you through them?

How can you share your faith when discussing topics like gender and sexuality with your peers?

How does understanding God's view on marriage affect your personal relationships and expectations?