

The 5 W's of Church

Value 5 – Love without Limits

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

In what ways can we reflect God's love in our daily interactions with others?

What does it mean to love without limits in the context of our church community?

How can you apply the concept of 'loving without limits' in your friendships?

How can seeing others as image bearers of God change the way you treat them?

In what ways can you practice empathy toward others, even those who have wronged you?

How can we actively choose to focus on the good in our relationships despite past hurts?

What practical steps can we take to forgive those who have wronged us?

How does understanding our own need for forgiveness impact our ability to forgive others?

What challenges do you face when trying to forgive someone who has hurt you?

What does it look like to engage with non-believers in a way that reflects God's love?