

Giving Up

Enemies

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

In what ways can you identify a 'Gentile' in your life, as described in the sermon?

How does Peter's experience challenge your own views on reaching out to those you consider outsiders?

What obstacles do you face in reconciling relationships with those you disagree with?

How can you practically apply the lesson of unity from Acts 10 in your daily interactions?

In what ways has God called you to extend love and kindness to your enemies?

Do you have someone at school, work, or in your life that you struggle to connect with?
How can you take the first step towards reconciliation?

How can the message of loving your enemies change the way you interact with others who hurt you?

What specific actions can you take this week to reach out to someone you've distanced yourself from?

How can you apply the idea of finding common ground with someone you disagree with?

What does it mean to you that Jesus calls us to make peace with others, even those we see as enemies?