Strangers: Following Jesus in a world that doesn’t always understand us

How are Christians called to engage culture?

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

What specific sins are you currently struggling with that you feel called to confront in your life?

In what ways can you actively show mercy to those around you this week?

How do you perceive the relationship between your faith and how you engage with cultural issues?

What has God shown you about submitting to authority, even when you disagree with it?

How can living a 'good life' among non-believers impact your witness for the Gospel?

What does it mean for you to engage with friends who might not share your beliefs?

Have you found it challenging to stand up for your faith in school or with friends? How can you do this effectively?

In what areas of your life do you struggle with peer pressure, and how might that affect your faith?

How can you demonstrate the love of Jesus through your actions in everyday life?

What role do you think your involvement in your community plays in representing Christ?