

Acts

Bold

DISCIPLESHIP QUESTIONS

How can we cultivate an attitude of being interruptible in our daily lives to better witness to others?

In what ways can we expect God to act in our lives this week?

What does 'bold faith' look like in your own life, and how can you demonstrate it in your community?

How do you perceive the role of prayer in developing bold faith?

Reflect on a time when you shared your faith; how did you apply the principles of bold faith during that encounter?

What does it mean to you to have a bold faith in your school or among your peers?

How can you create space in your life for God to work through interruptions?

Who in your life might need to hear about your faith story, and how can you share it?

How can you keep the conversation light and engaging while still being open about your faith?

In what ways can you expect God to act during your week, and how can you share those moments with others?