THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

13:21-14:3

The Departure Lounge

John 13:21-14:3

²¹ After saying these things, Jesus was troubled in his spirit, and testified, “Truly, truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me.” ²² The disciples looked at one another, uncertain of whom he spoke. ²³ One of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was reclining at table at Jesus' side, ²⁴ so Simon Peter motioned to him to ask Jesus of whom he was speaking. ²⁵ So that disciple, leaning back against Jesus, said to him, “Lord, who is it?” ²⁶ Jesus answered, “It is he to whom I will give this morsel of bread when I have dipped it.”

John 13:21-14:3

So when he had dipped the morsel, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. ²⁷ Then after he had taken the morsel, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to him, “What you are going to do, do quickly.” ²⁸ Now no one at the table knew why he said this to him. ²⁹ Some thought that, because Judas had the moneybag, Jesus was telling him, “Buy what we need for the feast,” or that he should give something to the poor. 30 So, after receiving the morsel of bread, he immediately went out.

John 13:21-14:3

And it was night. ³¹ When he had gone out, Jesus said, “Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. ³² If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and glorify him at once. ³³ Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me, and just as I said to the Jews, so now I also say to you, ‘Where I am going you cannot come.’ ³⁴ A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another.

John 13:21-14:3

³⁵ By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”³⁶ Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus answered him, “Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but you will follow afterward.” ³⁷ Peter said to him, “Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.” ³⁸ Jesus answered, “Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the rooster will not crow till you have denied me three times.

John 13:21-14:3

¹ “Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. ² In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? ³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also.

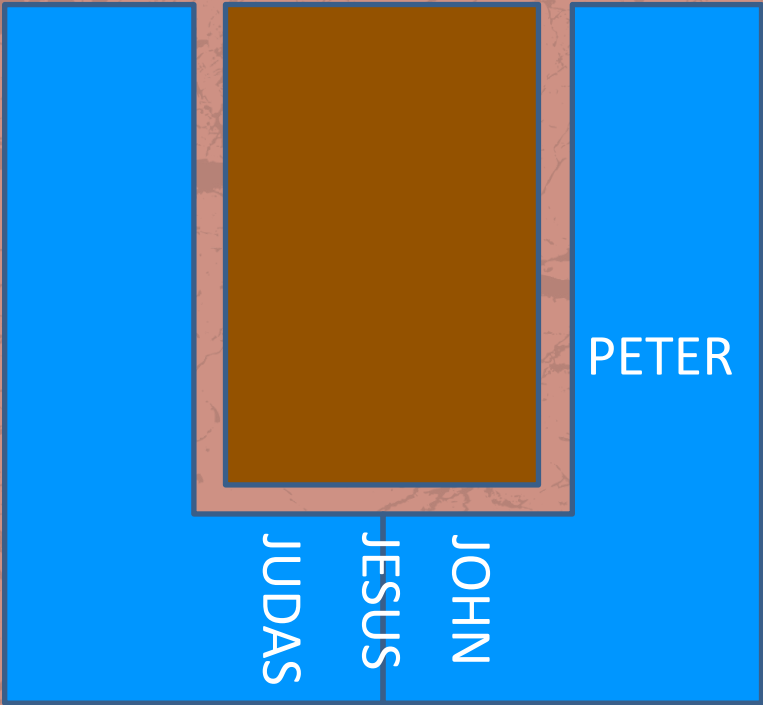

64 “But there are some of you who do not believe.”(For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.)”

John 6:64 ESV

70 “Jesus answered them. “Did I not choose you, the twelve? And yet one of you is a devil.” 71 He spoke of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the twelve, was going to betray him.”

John 6:70-71 ESV

*“Judas received the sop but not the love.
Instead of breaking him and urging him to contrition, it hardened his resolve.”*

- D.A. Carson

¹⁹ “And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil.”

John 3:19 ESV

¹⁰ “But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.”

John 11:10 ESV

³⁵ “The light is among you for a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you. The one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. ³⁶ While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light.”

John 12:35-36 ESV

⁴ For it is impossible, in the case of those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, ⁵ and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, ⁶ and then have fallen away, to restore them again to repentance, since they are crucifying a once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt. ⁷ For land that has drunk the rain that often falls on it, and produces a crop useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from God. ⁸ But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is worthless and near to being cursed, and its end is to be burned.”

Hebrews 6:4-8 ESV

“They may taste of the word in its truth, not its power; of the worship of the church in its outward order, not in its inward beauty; of the gifts of the church, not its graces.”

- John Owen

¹⁴ If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵ For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you.”

John 13:14-15 ESV

“the disciples of Jesus are to love one another as he has loved them, and that love is to mark them..., to distinguish them as their most notable feature, so that all people recognize the Christlike love of those who follow Jesus...”

- James M. Hamilton Jr.

“The new command is simple enough for a toddler to memorize and appreciate, [yet] profound enough that the most mature believers are repeatedly embarrassed at how poorly they comprehend it and put it into practice: Love one another.”

- D.A. Carson

¹³ “Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.”

John 15:13 ESV

“Sadly, good intentions in a secure room after good food are far less attractive in a darkened garden with a hostile mob.”

- D.A. Carson

“It is important before concluding this section to note the parallels, as well as the contrast, between Judas and Peter. Both had associated with Jesus across the previous years. Both had seen his signs and heard his truth. To both he gave his love and extended his appeal. In the final hours of Jesus’ mission both abysmally failed him, and abandoned him in the hour of his greatest need. Both grieved Jesus’ heart and added to his pain. The failure of both was spectacularly public. Both are known today around the world for the failures they perpetrated. One, however, was lost and the other saved. One repented, sought Christ’s mercy, and went to heaven. One, overwhelmed with remorse, turned upon himself, took his own life, and went unforgiven to hell.”

- Bruce Milne

21 “I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come.”

John 8:21 ESV
