LIBERTI

ROMANS 8:33-34

<sup>33</sup> Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. <sup>34</sup> Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.

“If people really see that Christ removed the fear of punishment from them by taking it into Himself, they won’t do whatever they want, they’ll do whatever He wants.”

JOHN BUNYAN

ROMANS 8:1-2

<sup>1</sup> There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup> For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death.

LIBERTI: "a word made to express among the Romans, the condition of those who, having been slaves, had been made free."

“The difference between an unbeliever sinning and a Christian sinning is the difference between a man transgressing the laws of the State...and a husband who has done something he should not do in his relationship with his wife.

He is not breaking the law, he is wounding the heart of his wife... It is no longer a legal matter, it is a matter of personal relationship and love...

In a sense it is now something much worse than a legal condemnation. I would rather offend against a law of the land objectively outside of me, than hurt someone whom I love.”
