Series: Philippians: To Live Is Christ

A Life Lived In the Light Phil 2:12-29

Main idea: This life is lived as a contrast to a dark, sin-sick world, so we labor from a Spirit-given power to rise as a beacon for others by living a life in holiness, saturated in Scripture, and willing to sacrifice it all for the sake of the one who saved us

Now What?

The Life of Timothy

Big Takeaway: God uses ordinary believers who are grounded in Scripture, shaped through discipleship, and willing to serve Christ faithfully..

Scripture: Acts 16:1–5; 2 Timothy 1:3–5; 3:14–15

- What do we learn about Timothy's family, upbringing, and reputation? How did these prepare him for ministry?
- What does Paul's decision to take Timothy along teach us about intentional discipleship?
- How does 2 Timothy 3:14–15 emphasize the importance of Scripture in forming genuine faith?
- Who has helped shape your faith, and how can you intentionally invest in someone else's spiritual growth?
