Series: Philippians: To Live Is Christ

A Life Lived Together

Philippians 1:27-30

A Life lived in Christ is a kingdom life lived united to His people, who fearlessly press on together even in the face of opposition, receiving grace and assurance that come only through faith and suffering.

What does it mean to be an American citizen?

- Ephesians 2:19

What does it mean that Scripture declares us citizens of a kingdom?

- Ephesians 2:19

Four Qualities of a Kingdom Citizen

1) A Worthy Life - v. 27

- Principle #1 - Privilege implies _____
- Conduct yourselves in a certain manner of life
- Principle #2: Christian conduct is governed by kingdom _____
 - 2 Corinthians 5:17-21
- Principle #3: Our _____ drive our imperatives
 - Ephesians 2:8-10

2) A United Life - v. 27b

- How do we live as a citizen of heaven?
- We _____ together in one Spirit
 - Ephesians 4:3
- We _____ together for the advancement of the gospel
 - Ephesians 6:12
 - Proverbs 6:16-19
- We fight to _____
 - 2 Corinthians 10:4-5

3) A Fearless Life - v. 28

- 2 Timothy 1:7
- 1 John 4:18

4) A Gracious Life - vv. 29-30

- Luke 14:26-33

So What?

What is one of the church's greatest enemies today?

Is your pattern of life matching your identity in Christ?

- Philippians 3:17-4:1

Are you promoting unity or quenching it?

- Ephesians 4:25-32

Now What?

Read Ephesians 6:10–20

- According to this passage, who should we consider to be our enemies? (Ephesians 6:10–12)
- What does it mean to put on the armor of God? Which one do I often neglect? (Ephesians 6:13–17)
- Where does the battle show up in everyday life? (Ephesians 6:11, 16; compare Ephesians 4:25–32 and 5:1–21)
- What role does prayer play in spiritual warfare? (Ephesians 6:18–20)
- Where are you presently being tempted to stop believing God's truth, stop obeying God's Word, or stop advancing the gospel—and which part of God's armor speaks most directly to that battle?
