THE OLD, OLD STORY

There was a loving _____ who was a master _____. He made a special place for His creation, providing everything that the man would need, including a _____. The place was perfect, crafted with deliberate _____. It was "Very Good". Only one instruction was given – don't eat the fruit of a certain _____, anything else was able to be eaten. This man and woman chose to _____ this one rule and marred everything the Father had created. But there was a _____ to the man and woman: someone would come and restore things to how they were created. Years and years pass, people are getting worse and worse – no one listened to the _____. This rebellion brought about a great calamity, but the Father provided one way to escape it – a large refuge that anyone could enter if they chose. Only one man's family entered, eight people in total. They were saved and began to repopulate the land. But old habits die hard, again people didn't _____ to the Father. They were thrown into chaos and eventually scattered abroad from that place. More years passed, nations rose and fought each other and forgot the _____ of the Father. Then it happened – He came! But the people didn't like what he said and did, so they _____ him. But because this promised one listened to the Father _____ could not contain him. He rose and promised to return one day in the future.

MORE THAN A STORY

This is much more than a story – it is _____. It is the story of _____ and _____, of _____ love for _____, it is the story of _____. Creation, Corruption, Catastrophe, Confusion, Christ, Cross, and Consummation.

YOU ARE PART OF THE STORY

In His kindness He has called us to be a part of His grand design. We are called His _____ in Eph. 2:10. The Loving Father has done everything necessary for us to be restored into a _____ relationship with Him. The _____ belongs to us, and we can _____ to reject this offer.

CONCLUSION

Today, as Christians all over the world celebrate the event that is the hinge of history, the Resurrection of Christ; On this day – you can choose to be a part of God' story. You can choose to be a part of the story that has eternal bliss. You can choose to become a follower of Jesus.
