Knowing God's Will

Joshua John / General Adult

Stand Alone / Will of God / Proverbs 2:1–6

The Bible tells us that God is good, and that He wants the best for His people, so, perhaps a better question would be: "What is God's will for my life?"

The Need for God's Will

In our human experience, we can easily determine that we don't have it all figured out. There is ample evidence that we are constantly making the wrong decisions in our lives by following our own will. This evidence is not only outside the body of Christ but inside as well.

Finding God's Will

1. Seek actively for Wisdom.

2. Search persistently for Insight (Discernment).

3. Secure God's promise.

Christ fully reveals God's will to us - so we must press in to Jesus and rely on His provision and guidance through the Holy Spirit.

Hindrances to Knowing God's Will

The best was to avoid these hindrances is to be truthful with ourselves and admit if we are engaging in any of these unwise practices. Identify them, repent of them, and strive to avoid them in the future.

Conclusion

In order to know God's will, we must diligently seek the wisdom He provides through His Word and the Spirit, which will guide our paths and decisions.
