THE MAGNIFICAT

Latin for “_____” In Mary’s culture she very likely was _____ by her parents, extended family and community. Elizabeth _____ what the angel Gabriel had told Mary. This song paints a picture of the _____ of the Messiah.

THE BENEDICTUS

Notably different than Mary’s song. It sounds more _____. Israel looked for a Messiah that would _____ them from their oppressors. Zechariah proclaims much _____. The anticipation of the culmination of the _____ of God sending the forerunner of the Messiah. Not just for Israel but for all the _____.

GLORIA

“Gloria in excelsis Deo” is the first line of this song. Also called the _____ Doxology. God has come to earth to redeem mankind and to destroy the works of the devil (1 John 3:8). _____ would no longer reign (Rom 5:17. How can we not proclaim this good news?

NUNC DIMITTIS

Latin for “now you can _____” referencing the first line of the song. It was spoken when Joseph, Mary, and Jesus were at the _____. Simeon says Messiah will be a light to the _____. BEFORE calling Him the _____ of Israel. This Song illustrates the fact that God _____ His promises!

CONCLUSION

We _____ the Lord in our lives because we understand that we have been _____ by the many promises of God, therefore we will _____ His name and _____ all our worries and anxieties of this world because in Christ we have everlasting _____!
