SCRIPTURE: ISAIAH 9:1-7

ADVENT IS A TIME OF ANTICIPATION, YEARNING, AND LONGING

Adventus Redemptionis: Christ coming at the _____.

Adventus Sanctificationis: The _____ process.

Adventus Glorificamus: Christ's _____ coming.

All three remind us that "The _____ is Coming!"

SPEAKING HOPE IN THE MOST UNLIKELY PLACES

To the very people living in _____ in Zebulun and Naphtali Isaiah addresses the message of _____. Wherever the darkness of sin has enslaved people, the light of the _____ can set them free. _____ is provided in the midst of _____, the message is simple, _____ will be removed by the _____ that shines forth which will cause multiplied _____ in God's people.

SPEAKING HOPE IN THE MOST UNLIKELY CIRCUMSTANCES

God does not merely say that there is hope, He _____ with very apt detail why there _____ hope. Only God can provide such a _____ as this; it is just as impossible for man to do it as it was for Gideon to conquer Midian in his own strength. The _____ of this comprehensive deliverance is a promise unlike anything that Israel would experience. The "means" for bringing about this promise is – _____!

SPEAKING HOPE IN THE MOST UNLIKELY WAY

God does not speak hope in an existing military or political leader, not in a rebel with or without a cause, not in an established formal religious rite but the glorious climax of this message of Hope is a _____. a name then indicates that by which a person or object is to be _____. Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, & Prince of Peace are all _____ titles. This infers that the _____ will be a _____. Jesus Christ has taken up a position of _____ over His kingdom, which certainly includes the _____.

CONCLUSION

As we enter into this season of Advent, let us remember that God _____ Hope even in the most unlikely places, circumstances, and way. Hope has a name, His name is _____!
