Joshua John / General Adult

Stand Alone / Testimony / Psalm 107:1–16

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so!

Psalms 105-107 are a poetic retelling of Israel's history and they reflect the framework of telling others about what God has done in your life.

Write down how God has moved in your life:

This personal experience is that which only you have, and only you can articulate to others - no one else can tell your story since they are not the ones who lived it, however - they can be comforted, encouraged, and challenged by your story.

Proclaim His Praise

We can understand that the underlying idea or theme applies across time and circumstances. This Gospel message carries a profound weight when coupled with your personal testimony. So irregardless of the reception of your testimony - We are admonished to proclaim God's goodness and praise Him!

Trust His Provision

Notice in this portion of scripture that there is wandering, that there is struggle, that there is hunger, that there is thirst, that there is drought and dryness. Sometimes we have spiritual drought and we struggle, and we ask that hard question: “Where is God in this?” During these times we need to cling to His promises. We need to trust His faithfulness. Because even when we struggle, when we become doubtful, and our faith wavers - Jesus is faithful. Sometimes that provision only comes through struggle.

Proclaim His Power

It is at the lowest point, that people will finally cry out to God and it's not a fancy prayer. It's not poetic. It's usually just “God I need you! I can't do this! Help me!” God hears our simple, desperate prayers and he answers and He saves. Only the power of Christ can accomplish such a feat. God is truly the Way-maker!

Conclusion

Take what God has done in your life that you wrote down earlier, develop that into a personal testimony, and incorporate that into your conversations, let it become second nature to share what God has done in your life to others. Your personal testimony is powerful! So, “Let the Redeemed of the LORD say so!”