

SOBERING REMINDER

We get one life, and we should steward it on purpose for a purpose.

NO SMALL MATTER

Timing can make the difference between reward and regret.

TIMING IN OUR LIVES

Not just measured by seconds but marked by seasons.

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF SEASONS

Seasons are critical to what God wants to develop in you, accomplish through you, and reveal to you.

LIFE

Seize the season you are in.

SEIZING YOUR SEASON

1. Remember God's design.
2. Reframe your expectations.
3. Remain on mission.

THROUGH IT ALL

The God of your changing seasons never changes.
