The Christmas season functions as a magnifying glass to our lives.

IN THE MOST BASIC TERMS

Our lives are made up of the past, the present, and the future.

THE GHOSTS

Life is too short, and your calling is too big to let the “Ghosts” have power.

THE PAST

Your past is hindering your present.

WHAT HAPPENS

We make a habit of remembering what we should forget and forgetting what we should remember.

MAKING YOUR PAST YOUR PAST

Believe what is true about being new.

2. You are discerning.
3. You are resourced.
