

BUTTON PUSHERS

For every button pusher around me, there is a button in me.

BUTTON PUSHED

It messes us up when people let us down.

EXPECTATION GAP

You had faith in them, and they failed you.

NOT IF, BUT WHEN

Because all people are fallible, disappointment is inevitable.

DEALING WITH DISAPPOINTERS

I can live fully and freely even when people fail me.

1. Be specific about their failure.
2. Exercise your right to forgive.
3. Filter your disappointment through your faith.

GRACEFULLY FACING FAILURE

The Gospel gives not only the how but also the why.
