

ARROWS

CONNECT IN COMMUNITY

Start a conversation with your group. Choose 1-2 questions to discuss together:

- When we consider our daily decisions, we could think about those as arrows we're shooting at a target. With that analogy in mind, what is the target at which you are aiming your arrows? In other words, what is the direction of your focus? What has been consuming your focus lately? Is there anything distracting you from where you desire to aim? Share openly with your group - helping one another to direct your focus on Jesus.
- In the journey of following Jesus, every day matters. Is there a habit/practice that God is prompting you step into in order to fix your eyes on Jesus? Remember, following Jesus is an embodied practice, something that we live out in action. If there is something that God is leading you to put into practice, allow your group to encourage you and hold you accountable.
- Where have you seen God's goodness lately? Where do you see God at work in your life and around you?
- What is a challenge you're facing? How is God shaping your perspective on this challenge?
- How did you do with putting into practice what we discussed last time we gathered?
- Who are you investing in who is far from God? In what environments are you currently spending time serving/loving/caring for those who don't yet know God?
- Is there someone who needs our help? How can we help them?

FAMILY MOMENT: Start your Move Group time or mealtime by including your kids in some of this conversation. Stick to one question and have kids listen and share, too.

CONNECT UP WITH GOD

Use the BREAD tool (be still, read, encounter, apply, devote) to engage in scripture:

Suggested passages: Matthew 14:22-36; 2 Corinthians 5:1-10; Hebrews 12:1-3

- Take a moment to BE STILL before reading a passage of scripture together.
- READ the passage and then have someone put it in their own words.
- ENCOUNTER God in His word:
  - What stands out to you? Why?
  - What does this text say about God? What does it say about people?
  - What are you doing or believing that is in opposition to this scripture?
- APPLY this scripture to your life:
  - How can you specifically live out this passage in the next few days?
  - What will look different in your life because of what you just read?
  - Create an “I will” statement.
- DEVOTE yourself to living this out:
  - What stands in the way of you really applying this? As a group, how will you hold one another accountable?
  - Pray together as you devote yourselves to these active steps of response to God. Include your kids in your prayer time and pray about what was shared. Invite everyone to have a voice during your time in prayer.

FAMILY MOMENT: Read the scripture from a kid-friendly Bible. After the reading is finished, have the kids draw a picture or build something with Legos about what stood out to them. (This can be done during adult conversation) After adult discussion time, have kids share their pictures or builds with the adults. Eventually, you can do the same with other questions.

CONNECT OUT MISSIONALLY

There are many ways to be near to those far from God, but here are just a few examples of ways to actively live this out as a group:

- Spend time regularly discussing and praying for individuals and the mission God has called them to. Who specifically has God called each person to love and serve? Encourage each other, hold each other accountable, pray, and help each other connect with those far from God.
- Host gatherings where people can invite others who are far from God.
- Serve a cause together that is important to one or more group members.
- Participate in serving a need in your community (meet a tangible need of the homeless population, serve in the foster care system, tutor a child, give financially to organizations providing resources for those facing addiction).

Include your kids when you serve or live missionally. Have conversations about why you are loving others and how it points people towards Jesus.
