

Guardian Angels

When angels are referred to by people of the world, they almost always call them “guardian angels.” People use that term not because they know of any scriptures but because there is a deep desire for there to be some supernatural help for them and their loved ones.

Are there guardian angels? Absolutely. It is in the heart of man to believe it not because of weak intellectualism but because the heart says so. Well, so does the word of God.

Psalm 91:11 reads:

“For He will command His angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.”
(Psalm 33:8 and 34:5 — 34:7 and 35:6 in Protestant Bibles)

“The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear Him and rescues them.”
Psalms 34:7

Angelic rescues are uncountable. Angels are at work guarding people from evil manifestations in their lives.

“Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to render service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?”
Hebrews 1:14

Angels are in place and working and there is really no dividing between “saved & unsaved.”

The realms of Kingdom superiority go beyond our earthly separations, designations, and legalistic religion.

The angel assigned to you has historically been thought to appear like you in a kind/kindred manner.

“When he knocked at the door of the gate, a servant-girl named Rhoda came to answer. When she recognized Peter’s voice, because of her joy, she did not open the gate but ran in and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

They said to her, ‘You are out of your mind!’

But she kept insisting that it was so.

They kept saying, ‘It is his angel.’

But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened the door, they saw him and were amazed.”

Acts 12:13-16
