HUMANISM

Built on a Crumbling Foundation!

| 4 TENETS of Humanism:

1.) “Religious Humanists regard the universe as self-existing and not created.”

| 4 TENETS

2.) “Humanism believes that man is a part of nature and that he has emerged as a result of a continuous process.”

TENETS:

3.) “Holding an organic view of life, humanists find that the traditional dualism of body and mind must be rejected.”

TENETS:

4.) “Humanism recognizes that man’s religious culture and civilization, as clearly depicted by anthropology and history are the product of a gradual development... molded to his culture.”

TENETS:

5.) “Humanism asserts that the nature of the universe depicted by modern science makes unacceptable any supernatural or cosmic guarantees of human values...”

TENETS:

6.) “We are convinced that the time has passed for theism, deism, modernism, and several varieties of ‘new thought.’”

TENETS:

7.) “Religion consists of those actions, purposes, and experiences which are humanly significant. Nothing human is alien to the religious...”

TENETS:

8.) “Religious humanism considers the complete realization of human personality to be the end of man’s life and seeks its development and fulfillment in the here and now.”

TENETS:

9.) “In the place of the old attitudes involved in worship and prayer, the humanist finds his religious emotions expressed in a heightened sense of personal life and in a cooperative effort to promote social well-being.”

TENETS:

10.) “Man will learn to face the crises of life in terms of his knowledge of their naturalness and probability. Reasonable and manly attitudes will be fostered by education and supported by custom.”

TENETS:

11.) “It follows that there will be no uniquely religious emotions and attitudes of the kind hitherto associated with belief in the supernatural.”

TENETS:

12.) “Believing that religion must work increasingly for joy in living, religious humanists aim to foster the creative in man and encourage achievements that add to the satisfactions of life.”

TENETS:

13 a.) “Religious humanism maintains that all associations and institutions exist for the fulfillment of human life. The intelligent evaluation, transformation, control and direction of such associations... is the purpose and program of humanism.”

TENETS:

13 b.) "...Certainly, religious... and communal activities must be reconstituted as rapidly as experience allows, in order to function effectively in the modern world."

TENETS:

14 a.) “Humanists are firmly convinced that existing acquisitive and profit-motivated society has shown itself to be inadequate... A radical change in methods, controls and motives must be instituted.”

TENETS:

14 b.) “A socialized and cooperative economic order must be established to the end that the equitable distribution of the means of life be possible.”

TENETS:

14 c.) “The goal of humanism is a free and universal society in which people voluntarily and intelligently cooperate for the common good. Humanists demand a shared life in a shared world.”

TENETS:

- 15.) “We assert that humanism will:
- a.) affirm life rather than deny it,
  - b.) seek the possibilities of life, not flee
  - c.) establish a satisfactory life for all, not merely a few.”

Humanist Manifesto 2

The 1973 Manifesto says:

- "No deity will save us; we must save ourselves."
- "We are responsible for what we are and for what we will be."

Humanist Manifesto 2

John Dunphy -- "I am convinced that the battle for humankind's future must be waged and won in the public school classroom by teachers that correctly perceive their role as proselytizers of a new faith: a religion of humanity that recognizes and respects the spark of what theologians call divinity in every human being..."

Humanist Manifesto 2

“The classroom must and will become an arena of conflict between the old and new -- the rotting corpse of Christianity, together with all its adjacent evils and misery, and the new faith of humanism, resplendent with the promise of a world in which the never-realized Christian ideal of 'love thy neighbor' will finally be achieved.”
