Study Questions:

#1 Why do you suppose Daniel was the only one who was able to see the vision of the angel? Can you think of another story where this same type of thing happens?

#2 Read 1 Thessalonians 2:17-19. How does Paul understand his travelling difficulties? Can you think of other stories in the Bible where the supernatural realm impacts the natural realm?

#3 Do you have any moments in your life where you believed you were being opposed by a spiritual being? What was it? What about being aided by one?

#4 Read Ezekiel 1 for another glimpse of behind the veil of supernatural beings. Record what is written and compare it to the description of the angel in Daniel 10.

#5 Chapter 11 predicts future events with astounding detail and accuracy. What does this teach us about God? What about the credibility of Scripture?

#6 What words would you use to describe prayer as it is referred to in the message? Are you more inspired to be a prayer warrior? If so, what practical steps can you take?

* Bonus: Can you think of another story in the book of Daniel where the veil between the realms was lifted?
