

SERIES: WITHOUT A KING
JUDGES 3
OCTOBER 4, 2020

THE CYCLE OF SIN

Judges 3:15 "Then the people of Israel cried out to the LORD, and the LORD raised up for the, a deliverer, Ehud, a left-handed man."

Left-Handed (not really): _____

Ehud was not a _____ to be used by God.

LOOKING FORWARD:

Like all the judges (who rescued God's people) Ehud ultimately points us _____.

Jesus was also an _____.

Jesus' _____ also came in an unexpected way.

LOOKING INWARD:

Ehud also points us _____.

What sets people apart is not their strength, but a _____ to serve God.

Study Questions:

#1 Have you ever heard the story of Ehud before? What do you think of it?

#2 How do the stories of Deborah and Gideon (other judges) echo the unexpected call of Ehud? Who is Fanny Crosby? What did she do and what made her an unlikely candidate?

#3 In your own words, how was Jesus "left-handed?" Do you think this made it harder for people to believe in him in the first century? What do you think he would be like if he was here now?

#4 How is knowing that you are "left-handed" humbling? How is it freeing?

#5 What does 2 Cor 4:7 say? How does it fit into what was discussed in the sermon?

#6 Summarize God's role in the Ehud story. Summarize God's role in your story.
