COMMUNION

BENEDICTION

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Missions

In Acts chapter one, the risen Lord Jesus commissions his disciples with these words: "...and you will be my witness in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

Jesus' goal was always for his mission to spread geographically outward, that the good news of the gospel would cross ethnic, cultural and linguistic barriers and be preached to those who had not yet heard. This is why our vision at Summit is to make the real Jesus known - not only within the walls of our church and across our city, but around the world. We invest in taking the gospel both to our nearest neighbors, and to the furthest nations.

According to The Joshua Project (joshuaproject.net), there remain over 7,000 people groups globally that are "unreached". That means there is little to no gospel presence through indigenous believers. The only way they will hear the message of Jesus is for someone from outside that culture and language to go preach to them. Our heart at Summit is to mobilize and support work intentionally aimed at planting churches among these least-reached peoples.

Psalm 67 begins with this prayer: "May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face to shine upon us..." They are the words of God's grace we end each Sunday with at Summit. But then the Psalmist surprisingly gives a purpose statement for those words: "That your way may be known on earth, your saving power among all nations." As God's people, we are never meant to be the end-users of God's grace, but conduits of it in the lives of others, that "the nations [would] be glad and sing for joy" (Ps. 67:4).
