WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Community Groups

From the very beginning, God designed his people to live in deep relationships with one another. In Genesis 2, when God says to Adam, "It is not good for man to be alone," he is speaking not primarily about marriage but about the essential need for community.

This theme continues in the New Testament. Jesus didn't come only to save individuals but to bring us into a new community - the church - where he reigns as King. Here, the goodness, grace, and love God shows us are meant to overflow in our relationships with one another. Simply put: the gospel creates community.

At Summit, Community Groups are our primary way of living out this biblical call to community. These groups are more than just mid-week Bible studies—they're a family where we gather with brothers and sisters to share meals, pray, encourage one another, bear each other's burdens, and remind each other of the gospel. Often, it's in these ordinary, everyday spaces that the beauty of the gospel shines most clearly.

Each Community Group has its own rhythm. Some meet weekly, others bi-weekly. Some share a meal every time, others less often. But in every group, no matter the neighborhood or the leaders, we come together to know and make known the real Jesus. If you're interested in joining a group, fill out a Connect Card and let us know.

NEWS & NOTES

Current Sermon Series

Life is full of paradoxes—beauty and brokenness, joy and sorrow, gain and loss. Ecclesiastes faces these head-on, exposing our inability to control the hevel—the vapor—of life. Yet it invites us to find purpose not by grasping for control, but by receiving life as a gift of grace. Join us over the next seven weeks as we explore this profound book together.

Youth Group Outing | October 19

Next Sunday the youth group will be going to the Pumpkin Patch & Corn Maze! Be sure to meet at the Summit Building at 3pm so they can carpool down to the patch. Pickup will be back at the Summit Building at 6pm! Be sure to check your email to fill out the youth group event waiver or for more details! You can email Matt Voss, at mvoss@realitysports.org if you have any questions!

Membership Class | November 15

If you're wondering what your next step into life at Summit might be, check out this class. You'll learn where the church fits in God's redemptive plan, why membership in a local church matters, and who we are as a church. Register at the Connect Desk, on our website, or on the Church Center App!
