Advent

For centuries, in the period leading up to Christmas, Christians have kept the season of Advent. This season offers us an incredible opportunity each year. Advent is a season not just for us to prepare for all of the "stuff" of Christmas, more importantly, it gives us a chance to prepare our hearts for the arrival of Jesus.

Advent invites us to wait, prepare, and long for our Savior to come. Meditating on the Scriptures and lighting candles each passing week reminds us of what Jesus' birth really means. And we're reminded not just of his coming in the past, but also of his future return, and we expect his arrival today in the present, through his very real presence in our lives.

Each of the four Advent candles points to a different reality that comes into our lives and our world through the arrival of Jesus. This year, through our Advent readings and the lighting of candles on the Advent wreath, we reflect on four realities that arrive with Jesus: Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love.
