WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Pastoral Prayers

Prayer is the heartbeat of our relationship with God, and corporate prayer has a deep and rich history as part of the church's worship. To pray is to express our need for God. A praying church is a dependent church. When we come to God together in prayer, we give voice to the fact that we don't possess in ourselves the resources, wisdom, and strength to do life and ministry on our own. Our selves, our church, and our world need God. Prayer turns us outward from self-centeredness to God-centeredness.

When we come into church on a Sunday morning, the problems of the world don't vanish. We feel the weight of brokenness around us. Society faces struggles, family members face sickness, and each of us face our own sin. In a pastoral prayer, the person praying brings these needs before a loving and gracious Father on behalf of the entire congregation. Although voiced by one person, pastoral prayers are intended to reflect the burdens we all carry.

Prayer, however, goes beyond simply listing our needs. It is a rich expression of worship, lament, thanksgiving, confession and intercession. Throughout different seasons of the church calendar, pastoral prayers will highlight various aspects of prayer, emphasizing the dimensions that align with the season or the needs of the moment.

For each of us, these prayers invitations to worship. As we listen, our hearts should join in—by faith, we take hold of God's promises, feel the weight of His concerns, and add our "Amen" (so be it) to what aligns with His purposes in the world. Our hope is that these prayers will bless and unite us, drawing us corporately into the very heart and presence of the living God who is with us.

NEWS & NOTES

New Series | Prayer In Four Dimensions

Prayer is hard. For many of us, it's a struggle to pray at all, let alone to pray with consistency and depth. Prayer in Four Dimensions is a four-week invitation into prayer as we begin a new year. This series doesn't offer quick fixes for our prayerlessness; instead, it explores prayer as a multi-dimensional life with God—lifting our eyes upward in worship, inviting God inward to shape our hearts, reaching outward in love for others, and moving forward in God's mission. Join us as we rediscover prayer as the space God meets us, forms us, strengthens us, and sends us.

Precepts Study | Starts Jan 20 & Jan 22

Ladies! Join us for a 4-week study of the life of Joseph. We'll dig deep into God's sovereignty, being faithful in difficulty, redemption and reconciliation, all while learning more about the Patriarchs. It's Genesis up close and personal. It will build your faith in God's plan when you're tempted to lose hope. It's Precepts, it's in-depth and you're invited! Starts Tuesday, Jan 20th and Thursday, Jan 22nd. Please contact Kathy Waltosz for additional details at (401) 323-2683 or email her at cg.kathymoore@gmail.com.

Intro to Biblical Stewardship Class | Jan 12

Join us January 12th & 26th from 6-8pm for a two-part Biblical Stewardship class taught by our very own Nathan Cruz.
