MORNING PRAISE

HYMN 542

“Dear Lord, to Your True Servants Give”

STAND

CALL TO WORSHIP

based on Romans 3:19-24

In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

When we come into God’s house and God’s presence, we remember that he is glorious beyond our imagination and holy in all he is and does.

He requires that same holiness of us through perfect obedience to his law.

Since we can’t do everything God demands, we stand before him in silence, conscious of our failure to live according to his will—conscious of our sins.

But now a righteousness from God, apart from law, has been revealed to us.

God’s righteousness is given to us through faith in Jesus.

All have sinned and fall short of the glory and perfection of God,

But God declares all people to be holy through the payment Jesus made for all sin.

So come into God’s presence in holy joy, knowing your sins are forgiven through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ!

Let us praise his name forever, for his amazing kindness and faithfulness!

OH, COME, LET US SING TO THE LORD

C: Oh, come, let us sing to the Lord, let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our sal - va - tion. Let us come into his presence with thanks-giv - ing, let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise. For the Lord is a great God and a great king a-bove all gods. The deep places of the earth are in his hand; the heights of the hills are al - so his. The sea is his, for he made it, and his hand formed the dry land. Oh, come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord our mak - er. For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray, and to give more than we either desire or deserve. Pour upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things for which we are not worthy to ask, except through the merits and mediation of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

EPISTLE

Hebrews 5:11-6:3 (EHV)

¹¹ We have much to say about this, and it is difficult to explain, because you have become too lazy to listen. ¹² In fact, though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you the beginning principles of God’s word all over again. You have become people who need milk, not solid food. ¹³ For everyone who lives on milk is not acquainted with the word of righteousness, because he is still an infant. ¹⁴ But solid food is for mature people, who have their senses trained by practice to distinguish between good and evil.

¹ Therefore, leaving the beginning discussion of Christ, let us press on toward matters that require greater maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith in God, ² of the teaching about baptisms, of the laying on of hands, of the resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. ³ And we will do this, if God permits.

GOSPEL

John 6:41-51 (EHV)

⁴¹ So the Jews started grumbling about him, because he said, “I am the bread that came down from heaven.” ⁴² They asked, “Isn’t this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? So how can he say, ‘I have come down from heaven’?”

⁴³ Jesus answered them, “Stop grumbling among yourselves. ⁴⁴ No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the Last Day. ⁴⁵ It is written in the Prophets, ‘They will all be taught by God.’ Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. ⁴⁶ I am not saying that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God. He is the one who has seen the Father. ⁴⁷ Amen, Amen, I tell you: The one who believes in me has eternal life.

⁴⁸ “I am the Bread of Life. ⁴⁹ Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and they died. ⁵⁰ This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that anyone may eat it and not die. ⁵¹ I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats this bread, he will live forever. The bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.”

HYMN 559

“Lord of the Living Harvest”

SERMON

1 Kings 19:3-8 (EHV)

Get Up and Eat!

³ Elijah was afraid, and he ran for his life. He went to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and he left his servant there. ⁴ But he himself went a day’s journey into the wilderness. There he sat down under a broom tree, where he prayed that he would die. He said, “I’ve had enough, LORD. Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers.” ⁵ Then he lay down and went to sleep under the broom tree.

Suddenly an angel touched him and said, “Get up and eat.”

⁶ Then he looked around, and near his head there was a loaf of bread baking on coals and a jar of water, so he ate and drank, and then he lay down again.

⁷ Then the angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him and said, “Get up and eat, because the journey is too much for you.”

⁸ So he got up and ate and drank. Then, with the strength gained from that food, he walked for forty days and forty nights to Horeb, the mountain of God.

WE PRAISE YOU, O GOD

Te Deum

C: We praise you, O God, we acclaim you as Lord; all creation worships you,

Fa-ther ev - er - last - ing. To you all angels, all the pow'rs of heav'n, cherubim and seraphim, sing in end-less praise: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of heav'n - ly hosts, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry.

The glorious company of apostles praise you. The noble fellowship of proph - ets praise you. The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.

Throughout the world the ho - ly Church ac - claims you:

Father of majesty unbounded, your glorious, true, and on - ly Son, and the Holy Spirit, ad - vo - cate and guide. You, Christ, are the King of glo - ry, the eternal Son of the Fa - ther. When you became man to set us free, you humbled yourself to be born of a vir - gin. You overcame the sting of death and opened the kingdom of heaven to all be - liev - ers.

You sit at the right hand of God in the glory of the Fa - ther.

We believe that you will come to be our judge.

Come then, Lord, and help your peo - ple, bought with the price of your own blood, and bring us with your saints to glory ev - er - last - ing.

OFFERING

- 1. Beginning this weekend, our ushers will be bringing the offering plates forward during this time. Therefore, please deposit any offerings you'd like to give to St. John's at the beginning of the service so the ushers may pick up those plates and bring them forward after the sermon. If you forget to give your offering prior to the service, there will be a plate available on the back of church. Thank you!*
- 2. Don't forget to fill out the Connect Card located in your pew or on your chair! Please complete it and place it in the offering plate or give it to an usher. Thank you!*

OFFERING HYMN 485

1 We give thee but thine own,
Whate'er the gift may be;
All that we have is thine alone,
A trust, O Lord, from thee.

“We Give Thee but Thine Own”

2 May we thy bounties thus
As stewards true receive
And gladly, as thou blessest us,
To thee our firstfruits give.

6 And we believe thy Word
Though dim our faith may be:
Whate'er for thine we do, O Lord,
We do it unto thee.

PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

Heavenly Father, you loved the world and gave your Son to liberate us from sin and death by his obedient death on the cross.

We confess that without your love we are lost.

Lord of the Church, we thank you for the treasure of the gospel. By your Spirit, keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith.

Strengthen our determination to do what pleases you, no matter what the danger or the cost.

Let us pray for those who carry a cross in the name of Christ and face ridicule and persecution for the sake of the kingdom: missionaries and chaplains, young people who stand up for what is right in the face of pressure to do what is wrong, and all who pay a high price for their faith and their values as Christians.

By your Spirit, O Lord, grant them patience and endurance.

Let us pray for those who carry heavy burdens in life: the sick and the chronically ill, the depressed and the lonely, those torn by conflict in personal relationships, those victimized by war and injustice, and all who face the terrors of life with a heavy heart.

Grant them peace, O Lord, and in your mercy, be their guardian and friend, their comfort and hope.

Let us pray for those who care for others: pastors and counselors; physicians and nurses; social workers and caring friends; all who feed the hungry, comfort the hurting, and stand beside the dying.

Strengthen them in their work, O Lord, and do not let them become weary in doing good.

Special prayers and intercessions may follow.

Hear us, Lord, as we bring you our private petitions.

Silent prayer.

Help us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Keep us faithful even to the point of death, that we may receive the crown of life, through Jesus Christ, our Lord who taught us to pray...

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

BLESSING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Amen.

Cards for Called Workers: At our upcoming Teacher/Staff Appreciation on August 29th, there will be an opportunity to give cards to our honorees. St. John’s understands that not everyone will be able to attend and deliver their cards in person. Therefore, our members are welcome to give cards to our called workers over the next few weeks by placing them in the offering plates or in the box in the Juneau Campus narthex. Thank you!

Meet the Welches Help us celebrate the arrival of our new Senior Assistant, Tommy Welch and his family! Mr. Welch, his wife Grace, and their two little boys (Rollie and Linus) have arrived in Dodge County and will be installed the weekend of August 22nd. We will have a small reception for the Welch family on Thursday, August 19th after the 6:30 PM service at our Juneau Campus. Come and meet the Welches!!!

More Ushers Needed: Our Juneau Campus is looking for more ushers. If you are interested, please sign the sheet in the Juneau narthex.

COLLEGE/TECH SCHOOL STUDENTS! Your St John’s family is excited for all of you as you get ready for the new school year! Stop by the narthex at the Juneau Campus starting August 12th to pick up a gift bag before you head off to college! Remember to stay connected to Jesus through our APP while you are away!

Church Council Installation: Installation of the Church Council members will be the weekend of 8/26-8/29 at every service. All Council members (current and incoming) are asked to participate.

Blue Zones Potluck Moai – Our next Blue Zones Potluck meal is being postponed from August 18th to September 15th at 5:15pm at our Juneau Campus. Blue Zones are areas of the world that share and benefit from a set of habits that increase longevity, health, and happiness. One of these habits is Plant Slant – a diet rich in beans, whole grains and vegetables. For our moai (a Japanese term which means “meeting for a common purpose”) bring a “Plant Slant” dish (along with recipe) to share – can be savory or sweet and you can find plenty of recipes at bluezones.com. Also bring a set of dinnerware for yourself. We will meet outside under the front portico/carport (we can move inside for weather if needed). Everyone is welcome to join us for a delicious meal and fun fellowship!

Teacher/Staff Celebration: Sunday, August 29th 10:30 AM Service with meal to follow in the Juneau church basement

As you may be aware, St. John’s School will be celebrating the anniversaries of our teachers and staff by having a special worship service with guest preacher, Paul Hirsch (who will be preaching at all the Sunday services only. If you are planning on attending, interested in donating food, or willing to help setup/take down, please signup on the sheet in the narthex or on our app. Thank you!
