Call to Worship

from Psalm 18

We ask the Lord to be with us as we join together to worship him.

He is the Father, the One who created and still preserves us; he is the Son, the One who died to save us; he is the Holy Spirit, the One who has given us life through faith.

The LORD is our rock, our fortress and our deliverer. We take refuge in him.

He reached down from heaven and rescued us from our enemies—from sin, from death, and from the devil.

Our God turns our darkness into light. He raises the humble and brings down the proud.

He gives me the shield of victory. Let us listen as he speaks to us, and let us praise him for his goodness.

Congregational Response 633 v1.

Confession of Sins

We know our Triune God is holy, and we know that we are not. Join with me as we confess our sins to our God.

Almighty God, our heavenly Father,

We have sinned against you in the thoughts that we think, with the words that we speak, by the things that we do, and in all that we have not done that you have commanded us to do. For all these sins, we plead for your mercy.

(Silence for Personal Confession)

We know that our sins break your heart, O Lord. And so we pray:

Forgive us in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, who paid for the sins of the whole world by his death on the cross, by being forsaken by you in our place. Deliver and restore us that we may be at peace.

In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise our Triune God!

Congregational Response 633 v3

“Speak, O Lord”

3 Speak, O Lord, and re - new our minds, help us grasp the heights of your plans for us, truths un - changed from the dawn of time, that will ech - o down thro' e - ter - ni - ty.
And by grace we'll stand on your prom - is - es, and by faith we'll walk as you walk with us. Speak, O Lord, till your Church is built, and the earth is filled with your glo - ry.

The musical score is written on six staves in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. It features a melody with various note values including quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, as well as rests. The lyrics are aligned with the notes, with some words spanning across bar lines. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

The Word

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

Almighty God and Father, dwelling in majesty and mystery, filling and renewing all creation by your eternal Spirit, and manifesting your saving grace through our Lord Jesus Christ, in mercy cleanse our hearts and lips that, free from doubt and fear, we may ever worship you, one true, immortal God, with your Son and the Holy Spirit, living and reigning, now and forever.

Amen.

First Reading

Genesis 1:1–2:3 (EHV)

In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. ²The earth was undeveloped and empty. Darkness covered the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the waters. ³God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light. ⁴God saw that the light was good. He separated the light from the darkness. ⁵God called the light “day,” and the darkness he called “night.” There was evening and there was morning—the first day. ⁶God said, “Let there be an expanse between the waters, and let it separate the water from the water.” ⁷God made the expanse, and he separated the water that was below the expanse from the water that was above the expanse, and it was so. ⁸God called the expanse “sky.” There was evening and there was morning—the second day. ⁹God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear,” and it was so. The waters under the sky gathered to their own places, and the dry land appeared. ¹⁰God called the dry ground “land,” and the gathering places of the waters he called “seas.” God saw that it was good. ¹¹God said, “Let the earth produce plants—vegetation that produces seed, and trees that bear fruit with its seed in it—each according to its own kind on the earth,” and it was so. ¹²The earth brought forth plants, vegetation that produces seed according to its own kind, and trees that bear fruit with its seed in it, each according to its own kind, and God saw that it was good. ¹³There was evening and there was morning—the third day. ¹⁴God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to divide the day from the night, and let them serve as markers to indicate seasons, days, and years. ¹⁵Let them serve as lights in the expanse of the sky to give light to the earth,” and it was so. ¹⁶God made the two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. He also made the stars. ¹⁷God set these lights in place in the expanse of the sky to provide light for the earth, ¹⁸to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good. ¹⁹There was evening and there was morning—the fourth day. ²⁰God said, “Let the waters swarm with living creatures, and let birds and other winged creatures fly above the earth in the open expanse of the sky.” ²¹God created the large sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their own kind, and every winged bird according to its own kind. God saw that it was good. ²²God blessed them when he said, “Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the waters of the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth.” ²³There was evening and there was morning—the fifth day. ²⁴God said, “Let the earth produce living creatures according to their own kind, livestock, creeping things, and wild animals according to their own kind,” and it was so. ²⁵God made the wild animals according to their own kind, and the livestock according to their own kind, and everything that creeps on the ground according to its own kind. God saw that it was good. ²⁶God said, “Let us make man in our image, according to our likeness, and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over the livestock, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that crawls on the earth.” ²⁷God created the man in his own image. In the image of God he created him. Male and female he created them. ²⁸God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves on the earth.” ²⁹God said, “Look, I have given you every plant that produces seed on the face of the whole earth, and every tree that bears fruit that produces seed. It will be your food. ³⁰To every animal of the earth, and to every bird of the sky, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is the breath of life, I have given every green plant for food.” And it was so. ³¹God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. There was evening and there was morning—the sixth day. 2 The heavens and the earth were finished, along with everything in them. ²On the seventh day God had finished his work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all his work that he had been doing. ³God blessed the seventh day and set it apart as holy, because on it he rested from all his work of creation that he had done.

Finally, brothers, rejoice. Set things in order. Be encouraged. Agree with one another. Be at peace. Gospel

Matthew 28:16–20 (EHV)

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷When they saw him, they worshipped him, but some hesitated because they were uncertain. ¹⁸Jesus approached and spoke to them saying, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹Therefore go and gather disciples from all nations by baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰and by teaching them to keep all the instructions I have given you. And surely I am with you always until the end of the age.”

Athanasian Creed (excerpt)

¹ Whoever wishes to be saved must, above all else, hold the true Christian faith. ² Whoever does not keep it whole and undefiled will without doubt perish for eternity.

³ This is the true Christian faith, that we worship one God in three persons and three persons in one God

⁴ without confusing the persons or dividing the divine substance.

⁵ For the Father is one person, the Son is another, and the Holy Spirit is still another,

⁶ but there is one Godhead of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, equal in glory and coequal in majesty.

⁷ What the Father is, that is the Son and that is the Holy Spirit:

⁸ the Father is uncreated, the Son is uncreated, the Holy Spirit is uncreated;

⁹ the Father is unlimited, the Son is unlimited, the Holy Spirit is unlimited;

¹⁰ the Father is eternal, the Son is eternal, the Holy Spirit is eternal;

¹¹ and yet there are not three eternals, but one eternal,

¹² just as there are not three who are uncreated and who are unlimited, but there is one who is uncreated and unlimited.

¹³ Likewise the Father is almighty, the Son is almighty, the Holy Spirit is almighty,

¹⁴ and yet there are not three who are almighty but there is one who is almighty.

¹⁵ So the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God

¹⁶ and yet there are not three Gods but one God.

¹⁷ So the Father is Lord, the Son is Lord, the Holy Spirit is Lord,

¹⁸ and yet there are not three Lords but one Lord.

¹⁹ For just as we are compelled by Christian truth to acknowledge each person by himself to be God and Lord so we are forbidden by the Christian religion to say that there are three Gods or three Lords.

²⁰ The Father was neither made nor created nor begotten by anybody.

²¹ The Son was not made or created, but was begotten by the Father.

²² The Holy Spirit was not made or created or begotten, but proceeds from the Father and the Son.

²³ Accordingly there is one Father and not three Fathers, one Son and not three Sons, one Holy Spirit and not three Holy Spirits.

²⁴ And among these three persons none is before or after another, none is greater or less than another,

²⁵ but all three persons are coequal and coeternal, and accordingly, as has been stated above, three persons are to be worshiped in one Godhead and one God is to be worshiped in three persons.

²⁶ Whoever wishes to be saved must think thus about the Trinity.

Prayer of the Church

Triune God, you are the one eternal God, whose name we praise forever. We would not have known you if you had not revealed yourself to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, three persons, yet one God. Remove from us all doubt and grant us humble faith as we contemplate this high and holy mystery.

Enlighten and empower us to worship you as the triune God, the holy Trinity.

God our Father, whatever good is in us, whatever good things we have, and whatever good we do comes from you alone. In you we live and move and have our being.

Open our eyes to see the gifts you provide every day purely out of your own love and care.

Lord Jesus our Savior, you came into our world to make the Father known to us. You joined yourself to us by taking on our humanity and brought us back to God by shedding your blood. In love you walked the way of suffering and carried the wrath of God that we deserved because of our sins. Help us believe that all you did and all you endured you did to rescue us and set us free.

In the bright new hope of your resurrection teach us to offer our lives in praise to God and love to our neighbor.

Creator Spirit, you breathed into us new life by the power of the gospel, opened our eyes to see the light of your grace, and filled our minds with the clear sound of your voice. Through Word and sacrament lead us to understand more completely how broad and deep and high is the love of God in Christ Jesus. Firm up our resolve to do battle with Satan and sin.

In every weakness be our strength, that we may show ourselves to be God's children: faithful in prayer, constant in hope, and fervent in love.

Hear us, Lord, as we pray in silence.

Silent prayer

Holy Trinity, you are the God of glory, the God of grace, and the God of all comfort.

We rejoice to call you Father, Son, and Holy Spirit and praise your holy name forever. Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

He recently finished Fahrenheit 451 for school and is working on Dune. Izzy (11yrs) has been reading animal rescue books (She loves animals!!). Jonah (9yrs) loves reading baseball, football, and basketball books with lots of statistics. He's our numbers kid. Isaac (6yrs) loves books that give him facts. He reads and reads and reads. He cannot get enough Bible stories. Gideon (4yrs) loves books about trucks, cars, and Grover. He also enjoys anything about first-responder vehicles...police cars, ambulances, and fire trucks. Pastor Mount reads Spanish books to his kids. La Primera Luna Llena de Gatita is a household favorite.
