CW 495

8:00 AM Service: Grades 5-8 will be leading this hymn. Congregation is invited to listen along to our November Hymn of the Month!

All other services: Please carefully listen as the organist introduces this new hymn. Please sing along to its beautiful words that remind us of the Last Day!

Stand

In the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Confession

If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.
If we confess our sins, God is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.

Let us confess our sins to the Lord.

Holy God, gracious Father,

I am sinful by nature

and have sinned against you in my thoughts, words, and actions.

I have not loved you with my whole heart;

I have not loved others as I should.

I deserve your punishment both now and forever.

But Jesus, my Savior, paid for my sins

with his innocent suffering and death.

Trusting in him, I pray: God, have mercy on me, a sinner.

Silence for meditation and reflection

Our gracious Father in heaven has been merciful to us. He sent his only Son, Jesus Christ, who gave his life as the atoning sacrifice for the sins of the whole world. Therefore, as a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

Lord God Almighty, so rule and govern our hearts and minds by your Holy Spirit that we may always look forward to the end of this present evil age and the day of your righteous judgment. Keep us steadfast in true and living faith, and present us at last holy and blameless before you; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

First Reading

Malachi 4

Look! The day is coming, burning like a blast furnace. All the arrogant and every evildoer will be stubble. The day that is coming will set them on fire, says the Lord of Armies, a day that will not leave behind a root or branch for them. <sup>2</sup> But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness will rise, and there will be healing in its wings. You will go out and jump around like calves from the stall. <sup>3</sup> You will trample the wicked. They will surely be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day when I take action, says the Lord of Armies.

<sup>4</sup> Remember the law of my servant Moses, which I commanded to him at Horeb to serve as statutes and judgments over all Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Look! I am going to send Elijah the prophet to you before the great and fearful day of the Lord comes! <sup>6</sup> He will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers. Otherwise, I will come and strike the land with complete destruction.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

2 Thessalonians 1:5–10

<sup>5</sup> This is evidence of God's righteous verdict that resulted in your being counted worthy of God's kingdom, for which you also suffer. <sup>6</sup> Certainly, it is right for God to repay trouble to those who trouble you, <sup>7</sup> and to give relief to you, who are troubled along with us. When the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his powerful angels, <sup>8</sup> he will exercise vengeance in flaming fire on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. <sup>9</sup> Such people will receive a just penalty: eternal destruction away from the presence of the Lord and from his glorious strength, <sup>10</sup> on that day when he comes to be glorified among his saints, and to be marveled at among all those who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Luke 21:5–19

<sup>5</sup> As some were talking about the temple, how it was decorated with beautiful stones and offerings, Jesus said, <sup>6</sup> “These things that you see here—the days will come when there will not be one stone left on another—every one will be thrown down.”

<sup>7</sup> They asked him, “Teacher, when will these things happen? And what is the sign that these things are about to happen?”

<sup>8</sup> He said, “Watch out so that you are not deceived! For many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he,’ and ‘The time is near.’ Do not follow them. <sup>9</sup> Whenever you hear of wars and revolutions, do not be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end will not be right then.”

<sup>10</sup> Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>11</sup> There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be horrifying sights and great signs from heaven. <sup>12</sup> But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, handing you over to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name’s sake. <sup>13</sup> It will turn out to be your opportunity to testify. <sup>14</sup> So make up your minds not to prepare beforehand how to defend yourselves, <sup>15</sup> for I will give you words and wisdom that none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict. <sup>16</sup> You will be betrayed even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will put some of you to death. <sup>17</sup> You will be hated by all people for my name’s sake. <sup>18</sup> But not a hair of your head will perish. <sup>19</sup> By patient endurance you will gain your lives.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to you, O Christ!

Confession of Faith: End Time Creed

*Various passages of the Bible tell us what to expect when Jesus comes again.
Pastor speaks the regular font; congregation responds with the bold font responses.

God has set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed.

He has given proof of this to all men by raising him from the dead.

The Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God.

When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his throne in heavenly glory.

All the nations will be gathered before him.

There will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked. Multitudes who sleep in the dust of the earth will awake:

some to everlasting life, others to shame and everlasting contempt.

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned, but whoever does not believe stands condemned already because he has not believed in the name of God's one and only Son.

The King will say to us, "Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world."

Christ will transform our lowly bodies

So that they will be like his glorious body.

Then the wicked will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life.

And so we will be with the Lord forever.

Our citizenship is in heaven.

And we eagerly await a Savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, we keep watch, because we do not know on what day our Lord will come.

We must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when we do not expect him.

Amen.

Come, Lord Jesus.

Prayer of the Church

Brief intercessory prayers may be added in a fitting place.

Eternal and gracious Father, as we near the end of another year of grace. Once again, the Holy Spirit has nourished and strengthened our faith as we reviewed the words and works of Jesus recorded in the Gospels. We have rejoiced to hear that you kept the promises you made to your ancient people. We were encouraged as we remembered how you empowered your followers to proclaim the good news in their world.

Work in us every day to believe the truths of your Word and apply them in our lives.

We are aware that we live in dangerous times as Satan and his forces of evil assault your people again and again. Give us wisdom to discern teachings that subtly deny the Scriptures. Provide courage to stand against the attacks of godless opponents. Strengthen our resolve to confess the truth and then to speak the truth in love.

Work in us every day to be watchful and cautious as we live in our world.

Help us take to heart that your Son, our Lord Jesus, is coming again to judge the living and the dead. Since the day of his return is unknown to us, lead us to note the signs that signal the end of time. Spare us from fear as trouble and woe increase, and fill us with hope as we long for that great day.

Work in us every day to be ready for the moment of his coming.

Fill us with concern for family members and friends who are not taking seriously their need for Jesus and his forgiveness. Provide opportunities to reach out to them with patient persistence and to lovingly lead them to your Word and sacraments. Make us generous with our offerings so that others can go in our place to proclaim the good news.

Work in us every day to witness to Christ and his love for sinners.

Lead us to see our Savior's face in the faces of the poor and hungry, the lonely and forgotten, the oppressed and imprisoned, and move to support them whenever we can. [Today we ask that you keep in your care... here name the person and the cause of the petition.] Empower our faith to be lights in the world so that people may see our good works and glorify you and your Son.

Work in us every day to imitate your love for the lost, the least, and the last.

If you call us to glory before the final day comes, carry our souls to heaven where we will await the resurrection of our bodies. Comfort those who may grieve over losing us and point them to the day when they will join us at the marriage feast of the Lamb.
Work in us every day so that we are ready whenever you call us home.

Hear us, Lord, as we pray in silence.

Silent prayer

Fill us with hope and joy as we await your Son's return. Cause us to enjoy your earthly blessings in light of your eternal glories and to realize that heaven is really our home. Lead us to long for the splendor of Paradise where you will wipe away all tears from our eyes.

Work in us every day as we listen for the sound of the final trumpet. Amen.

It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who promised that wherever two or three come together in his name, there he is with them to shepherd his flock until he comes again in glory. Therefore, with all the saints on earth and hosts of heaven, we praise your holy name and join their glorious song:

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Blessed are you, Lord God, eternal King and gracious Father. In love you made us the crown of your creation. In mercy you planned our salvation. In grace you sent your Son to redeem us from sin.

We remember and give you thanks that your eternal Son, Jesus Christ, became flesh and made his dwelling among us, that he willingly placed himself under law to redeem those under law, that he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death on a cross, that he has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Bless us as we receive your Son's body and blood in this Sacrament. Forgive our sins, increase our faith, strengthen our fellowship, and deepen our longing for the day when Christ will welcome us to his eternal feast. Praise and thanks and honor and glory be to you, O God our Father, and to your Son and to the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Words of Institution

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my + body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my + blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

Amen.

Join us next week for Christ the King

Every soul has a leader, who leads their heart and guides and motivates actions. For many people the leader, the driving force of their heart's decisions, can be work, power, pride, acquiring nice things and a nice home, recreation, and the accumulation of wealth. Some will have awful things sitting on the throne of their heart – drugs, alcohol, rage, and porn. Any of those two lists which sit on the throne of our heart will become tyrants of life.

Christ the King Sunday encourages us to have a different leader sitting on the throne of our heart. We are encouraged to have a different driving force guiding our decisions – not a tyrant, but a Shepherd-King. Jesus is that leader, that driving force, that Shepherd-King who is to sit on the throne of our hearts. He died for us and deserves the throne of our heart. He is the only leader of our heart who will guide and direct our life for our good and blessing.
