OPENING HYMN 290

“One Thing’s Needful”

STAND

GREETING & INTRODUCTION

We worship in the name of God the Father...

Who gave us our life through His almighty power.

We worship in the name of God the Son...

Who redeemed our life with His precious blood.

We worship in the name of God the Holy Spirit...

Who gives us eternal life through faith in Christ Jesus.

WORSHIP DIALOGUE

Dear members and friends of St. John’s, may the Lord, and all His blessings, be with each of you!

May those same blessings be with you as well!

O Lord, use my heart, my mind, and my mouth;

so that I may give You the praise and glory You deserve.

Be with us this day as we’ve gathered to worship in Your holy name.

O Lord, come to us and bless us through Your Word.

Lord God, once again You have guided and guarded us through another day of grace in our earthly lives, and brought us together to praise Your holy name and to be strengthened through Your Word. Bless us who are gathered here in Your house, and forgive us all our sins. Dispel our sorrows and earthly concerns with the comfort of Your Word, and receive our hymns of thanks and praise.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, our living Savior, who reigns in heaven with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

In the peace of forgiveness, let us praise our Lord.

COME, OH, COME, LET US SING TO THE LORD

Please sing in unison.

Baptism and Adult Confirmation of Brielle Binder and Brandon Binder 10:30 AM

FIRST LESSON

2 Kings 5:14-27 EHV

¹⁴ So he went down and dipped in the Jordan seven times, just as the man of God had said. Then his flesh was restored like the flesh of a small child, and he was clean. ¹⁵ Then he and his whole escort went back to the man of God. He stood in front of Elisha and said, “To be sure, now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel. Now accept a gift from your servant.”

¹⁶ But Elisha said, “As surely as the LORD lives, in whose presence I stand, I will not take anything.” Even though Na’aman urged him to accept something, he refused.

¹⁷ Then Na’aman said, “If you do not want anything, please give me, your servant, as much dirt as two donkeys can carry, for your servant will never again burn incense or sacrifice to other gods, but only to the LORD. ¹⁸ But may the LORD forgive your servant this one thing: When my master goes into the house of Rimmon to bow down there and he supports himself on my arm, then I too have to bow down in the house of Rimmon. When I bow down in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD forgive your servant this one thing.”

¹⁹ Then Elisha said to him, “Go in peace.”

When Na’aman had gone some distance from him, ²⁰ Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, “My master was too easy on this Aramean, Na’aman, when he did not accept anything that he brought. As surely as the LORD lives, I will run after him and get something from him.”

²¹ So Gehazi chased after Na’aman. When Na’aman saw him running after him, he got down from his chariot to meet him. He said, “Is everything all right?”

²² Then Gehazi said, “Yes, everything is all right. My master sent me to say, ‘Look, just now two young men from the hill country of Ephraim, from the sons of the prophets, have come to me. Please give them a talent of silver and two sets of clothing.’”

²³ Na’aman said, “Certainly! Take two talents!” He urged Gehazi and tied up the two talents of silver in two bags with the two sets of clothing. Then Na’aman gave them to his two servants, and they carried them ahead of Gehazi. ²⁴ When he came to the hill, he took the gifts from them. Then he hid them in the house and sent the men back, so they left. ²⁵ Then he went in and attended his master.

Elisha said to him, “Where were you, Gehazi?”

Gehazi said, “Your servant didn’t go anywhere.”

SECOND LESSON

Hebrews 13:1-6 EHV

Continue to show brotherly love. ² Do not fail to show love to strangers, for by doing this some have welcomed angels without realizing it. ³ Remember those in prison, as if you were fellow prisoners, and those who are mistreated, as if you yourselves were also suffering bodily.

⁴ Marriage is to be held in honor by all, and the marriage bed is to be kept undefiled, for God will judge sexually immoral people and adulterers. ⁵ Keep your life free from the love of money, and be content with what you have. For God has said:

I will never leave you,
and I will never forsake you.

⁶ So then we say with confidence:

The Lord is my helper, and I will not be afraid.
What will man do to me?

GOSPEL LESSON

Mark 10:17-27 EHV

¹⁷ As Jesus was setting out on a journey, one man ran up to him and knelt in front of him. He asked, “Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

¹⁸ Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good except one—God. ¹⁹ You know the commandments. ‘You shall not murder. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not give false testimony. You shall not defraud. Honor your father and mother.’”

²⁰ The man replied, “Teacher, I have kept all these since I was a child.”

²¹ Jesus looked at him, loved him, and said to him, “One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

²² When he heard this, he looked sad and went away grieving, because he had great wealth. ²³ Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!”

²⁴ The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus told them again, “Children, how hard it is for those who trust in their riches to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

²⁶ They were even more astonished and said to one another, “Who then can be saved?”

²⁷ Jesus looked at them and said, “For people, it is impossible, but not for God, because all things are possible for God.”

PRAYERS & LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

OFFERING HYMN 477 v1&3

“What Is the World to Me”

1 What is the world to me With all its vaunted pleasure
When you, and you alone, Lord Jesus, are my treasure!
You only, dearest Lord, My soul's delight shall be;
You are my peace, my rest. What is the world to me!

3 The world seeks after wealth And all that money offers,
Yet never is content Though gold should fill its coffers.
I have a higher good; Content with it I'll be;
My Jesus is my wealth—What is the world to me!

BLESSING

In the 8:00 AM service, the Adult Choir will sing "A Bach Benediction" in place of the spoken blessing.

The Lord bless you and keep you.

The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.

The Lord look on you with favor and give you peace.

Amen.

Angels and Demons Bible Class

For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone. Psalm 91:11,12

In the Bible these words are spoken by two opposing powers—God and Satan. The way they use these words points to a conflict. God uses them to give us comfort. Satan used them to tempt Jesus to sin. In this nine-lesson course we will consider not only the leaders but also the soldiers in these opposing armies: angels and demons. This series begins Sunday, October 24 in Lowell at 8:15 AM and Juneau at 9:30 AM or watch it afterwards on our website.
