

Mixie was the beloved wife of Dallas H. McAllister for over 75 years. She was the love of his life and a treasure of his heart.

She loved and enjoyed her family and was a great example of a godly woman to those who live on in her legacy of faith:
Daughters — Debbie (Tony) Weiger and Patty (Scotty) Hopkins;
Grandchildren — Pamela Jo (Kevin) Holmes, Adam (Linda) Weiger, Jonathan (Tressie) Hopkins and Joshua (Audrey) Weiger;
Great-grandchildren — Haylee Jo (Logan) Rysko, Austin, Zachary, Emma, Ava and Dallas Weiger, Landon and Benjamin Hopkins, Quentin (Claudia), Keaton, Cora, and Isaac Holmes; and one great-great-grandchild — Ember Delp. Also, a whole host of nieces and nephews fondly remember their “Aunt Mixie”.

She was a born-again believer in Jesus Christ and lived to follow Him. A huge part of her Christian life was her service and faithful attendance at Chilhowie First Church of God, as part of the choir, women’s and children’s ministries, Bible studies and prayer groups. She loved her church family and was well-loved by them.

Mixie was preceded in death by two infant sons, Richard Dwight and Gary Allen McAllister, her parents Estel and Susie McGhee and 11 siblings: Della May, Garland, Mary Rachel, Richard (Topsy), Dora Agnes, William (Buck), Annie, Hazel, Laura Belle (Tiny), Joyce and Betty Sue. What an amazing reunion they have had in Heaven!

Burial will follow at the McAllister Family Cemetery in Saltville, VA, Pastors Bobby Dunn officiating.

you have been to us all.*

Amazing Grace

Amazing Grace how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me,
I once was lost but now I'm found, was lost but now I see.

Through many dangers, toils and fears, I have already come,
Tis grace has brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first begun.

It Is Well With My Soul

It is well, with my soul. It is well, it is well with my soul.

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll—
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say,
"It is well, it is well with my soul."

And, Lord, haste the day when my faith shall be sight,
the clouds be rolled back as a scroll—
The trump shall resound and the LORD shall descend,
"Even so"—it is well with my soul.

How Beautiful Heaven Must Be

We read of a place that's called heaven,
It's made for the pure and the free;
These truths in God's Word He hath given,
How beautiful heaven must be.

*How beautiful heaven must be, Sweet home of the happy and free;
Fair haven of rest for the weary, How beautiful heaven must be.*

What a Day That Will Be

There is coming a day when no heartaches shall come,
No more clouds in the sky, no more tears to dim the eye;
All is peace forevermore on that happy golden shore
What a day, glorious day, that will be.

*What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see,
And I look upon His face—the One who saved me by His grace.
When He takes me by the hand, and leads me through the Promised Land,
What a day, glorious day, that will be!*

There'll be no sorrow there, no more burdens to bear,
No more sickness, no pain, no more parting over there;
And forever I will be with the One who died for me
What a day, glorious day, that will be.
