STAFF NOTES:

Good morning Calvary. What a great week of Vacation Bible School last week. There is tired and then there is VBS tired, but it is worth it. It is a great joy to share the Gospel with so many kids while we pour life in them with time and love. It is a great joy to minister along with each other while we build relationships and grow together. Thank you to everyone who had a hand in making last week such a good week!

Today is Father's Day and we want to make sure our dads feel the love as well. You are incredibly valuable to your families and to our church family. We pray today is a wonderful day of celebration. Ultimately, we come here to worship our Heavenly Father. Everything we have is because of Him and His love for us. In the midst of everything going on in life, let's take a few moments this morning to take in the glory of God and reflect it to those around us. Let's worship.
