STAFF NOTES

We are people of habits. Some habits are good and some are not so good. It's great that your family regularly attends services at Calvary Church. People have the habit of parking their vehicles in the same location when they attend church. Last Sunday, we were blessed to have a large number of guests attending our worship service. Because most of us attend Sunday morning Bible study classes, we don't see the parking problem we have at worship time. Calvary's family has a servant's heart and we are always looking for ways to serve others. We have reserved handicapped parking and marked parking for expected mothers. We try to leave the parking spaces close to the worship center for guests, seniors, and families with small children and those who might have problems walking across the street. Next Sunday, when you arrive consider parking your vehicle on the lot located by the adult education center or the groundwater building parking lot. Several let their family out at the door and then park their vehicle across the street. We have men driving a golf cart to assist you from the parking lot to the buildings. As we arrive and park our vehicles, let's think of others. A spirit of servanthood is always found at Calvary Church.

Adults in Ministry (AIM) will host our Winter Pastor's Bible Study on January 16th & 17th (Tues. & Wed.) in the church gym from 11:30 -1:00. Lunch will be served both days. Plan to attend and bring a friend to hear Pastor Craig share from God's Word.
