

WEEK 1: WHAT IS A MINISTER?

BEFORE THE TITLE, THERE WAS FIRE

"A divine recalibration in the Spirit... God is not asking, 'What can you do?'
He is asking, 'What have you become?'"

THE DIVINE RECALIBRATION

"There comes a time where God stops clapping for charisma...
and starts calling for consecration."

THIS IS NOT A CLASS. THIS IS A CONSTRUCTION SITE.

REDEFINING THE FUNCTION

SHARATH (HEBREW)

To serve, attend, or wait upon.

Ministry begins in strict proximity. The minister is one who stays close enough to hear, humble enough to obey, and faithful enough to remain when there is no applause.

DIAKONOS (GREEK)

Servant, attendant, messenger.

Ministry is not self-expression; it is assigned execution. A minister does not invent the burden—they bear it. They do not originate the message—they carry it.

"MINISTERS A FLAME OF FIRE"

FIRE CARRIES PRESENCE

Fire is never empty; it is always occupied. A communicator informs, but a presence carrier transfers.

FIRE CONSUMES

Fire does not negotiate. True ministry confronts bondage and burns out sin instead of managing or counseling it.

FIRE PURIFIES

Called a "refiner's fire". It removes what does not belong while preserving what was always meant to remain.

FIRE MUST SPREAD

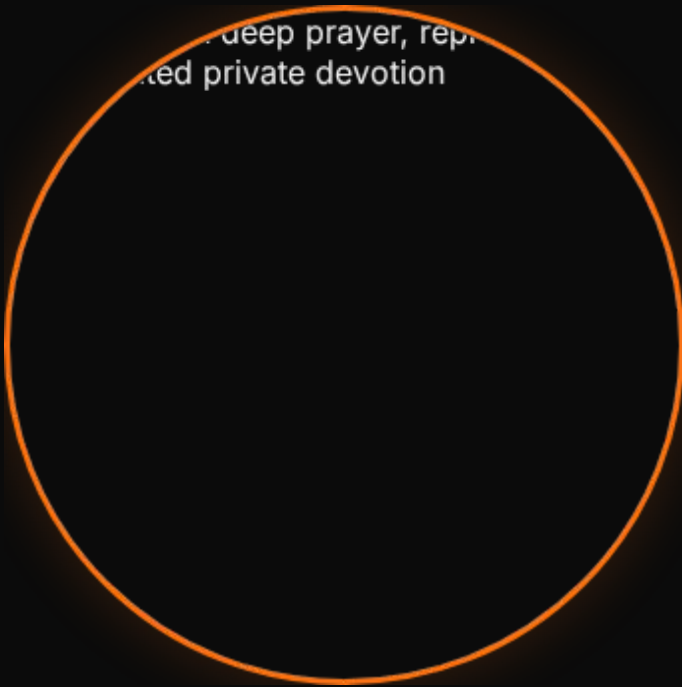

Its nature is to extend, reach, and reproduce.

True fire leaves a deep residue. It lingers in conversations, follows people home, and interrupts lifestyles.

If a ministry gathers people but never ignites them, it may be light, but it is not fire. Fire doesn't just shine—it spreads.

THE PRIORITY OF THE SECRET PLACE

FIRST, MINISTER TO GOD

Public ministry to people without private ministry to God is mere performance. The pattern is clear: ministering to God precedes hearing God, which precedes ministering to people.

"You don't minister to God by being seen... You minister to God by staying."

OBEDIENCE MADE VISIBLE

- ✔ First Language of Ministry Noah built warning; Moses stretched his rod; Jesus spoke only what He was instructed. Ministry is compliance to divine commands.
- ➔ Alignment Over Activity We mistake action for obedience. But doing something spiritual that is not what God instructed is out of alignment.
- ★ Materializing the Unseen When a man obeys God, he acts as the body language of revelation—making the invisible will of Heaven visible to others.

THE DANGER OF SKIPPING FOUNDATIONS

THE DIVINE ORDER	THE DISTORTED ALTERNATIVE (SKIPPING THE FOUNDATION)
Tasks Over Titles	Chasing rank, promotion, and validation instead of executing faithful private service.
Presence Over Platform	Building visible stages while abandoning private cultivation—converting ministry into maintenance.
Validity Over Visibility	Measuring accuracy by human exposure and followers rather than certified weight in Heaven.
Carriers Over Performers	Amusing crowds with natural talent while entirely lacking the substance of refineable fire.

FIRE

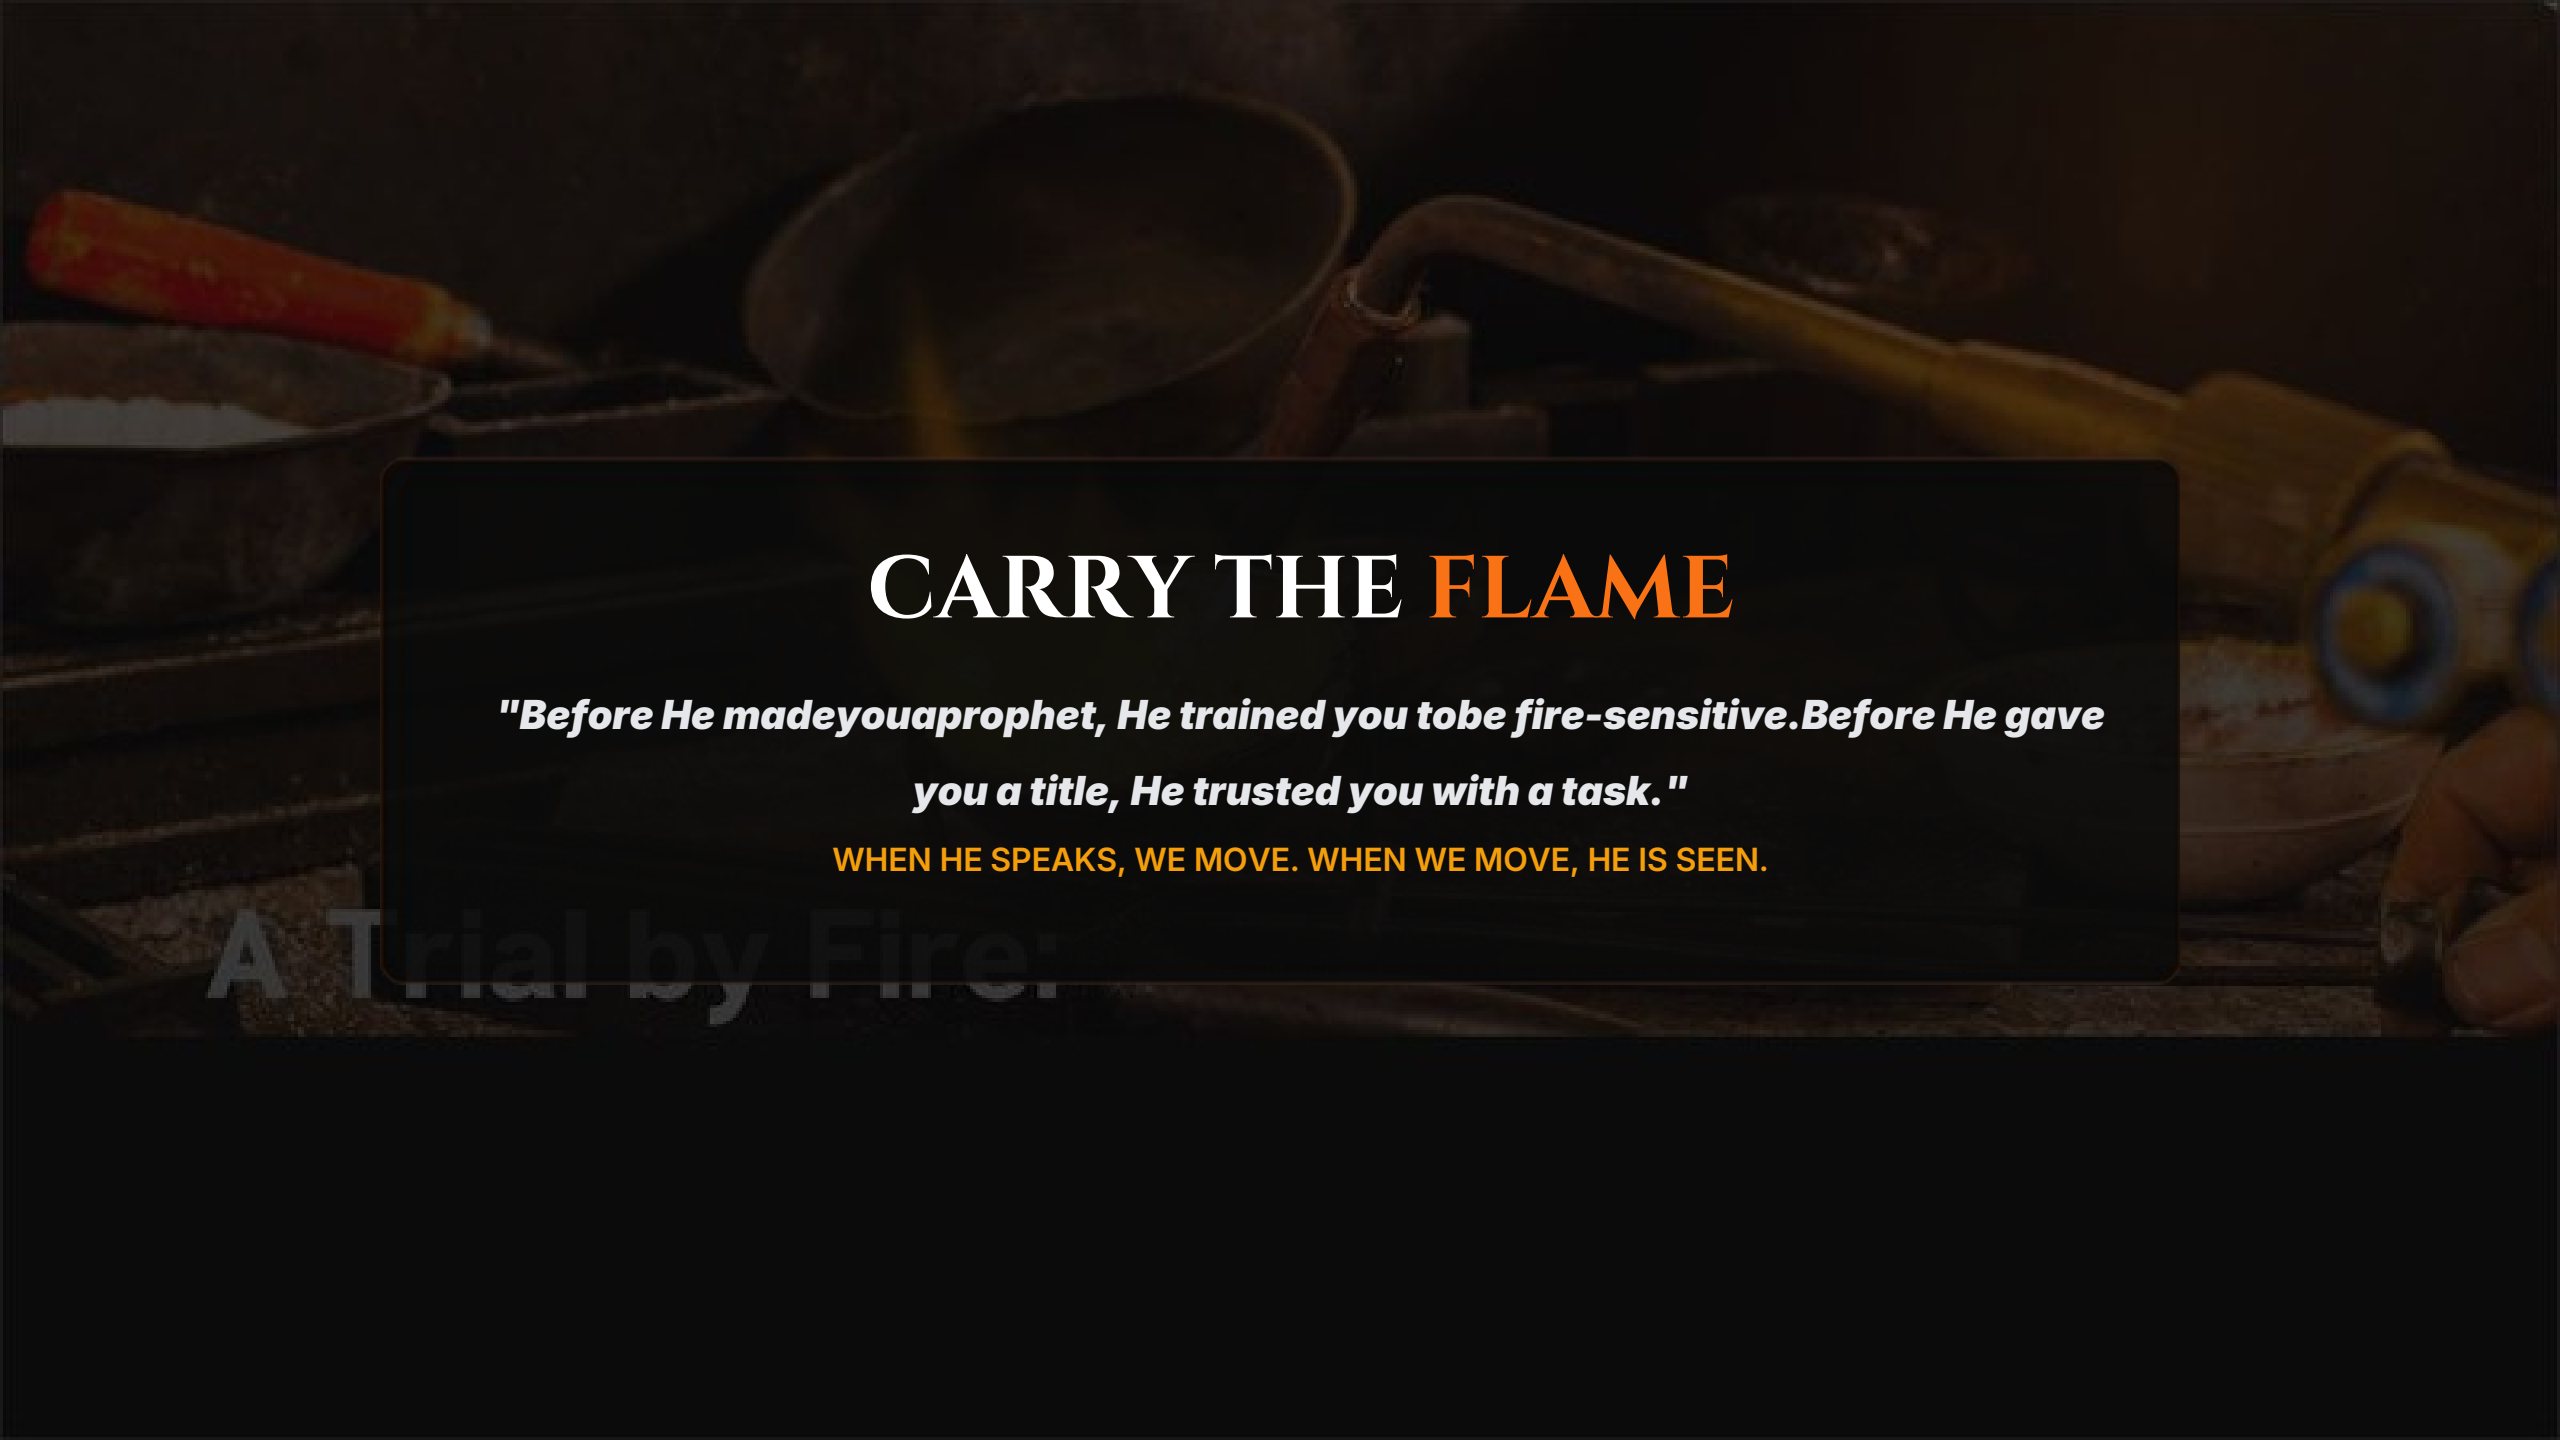

WHAT DID YOU BURN?

"At the end of this journey, the question will not be 'What did you learn?'... The question will be 'What did you burn?'"

A title can introduce you to people, but only absolute obedience can identify you before the presence of God.

THE 10-WEEK CONSTRUCTION PROCESS

CARRY THE FLAME

"Before He made you a prophet, He trained you to be fire-sensitive. Before He gave you a title, He trusted you with a task."

WHEN HE SPEAKS, WE MOVE. WHEN WE MOVE, HE IS SEEN.
