

Ask yourself a few questions

Whose voice do I listen to most—Jesus, culture, social media, friends, or my own desires?

Am I more influenced by what is popular or by what Jesus teaches?

What am I chasing most right now—approval, comfort, wealth, status, pleasure, or faithfulness to God?

If someone watched my life, what would they say has the greatest influence over me?

Am I becoming more like Jesus or more like the culture around me?
