

Advent: IMAGINE
Mark 13:24-37
December 1, 2019
Dr. Matt Powell

Imagine: to form a _____ of something _____ present.

Advent is an annual rhythm where we imagine a _____ our eyes cannot see in order to reignite our _____ and _____ our tomorrow.

A season in which we celebrate the birth of Jesus as the _____ of His imminent _____.

We are to live with an _____ today, as if Jesus is _____.

This is a lifestyle which demands we ask everyday:

3. What must I _____ today, believing that Jesus' return is imminent?
4. What must I explicitly _____ today, believing that Jesus' return is imminent?