“Trusting in God’s Plan”

Genesis 41
Greg Granger
5/26/2024

1. Sometimes God has to allow us to be _____ in order to get our _____.
These moments are actually great, unrealized _____.
2. God _____ that His faithful servants are _____. The bride of Christ must be faithful.
3. God _____ (and deserves) all the _____. Joseph is not the story here, God is the story. He is the provider of all. Whether wisdom, riches, or abundance, that is ONLY provided by God.
4. God will make us _____ in the land of our _____. God ultimately placed Joseph in a position of power and _____ him.
5. God _____ what He is _____.
6. The humble _____ of God does not _____ themselves.
7. _____ stems from absolute _____ in God’s _____ and _____ over _____ situation. The gentle person is not occupied with self at all. This is a work of the Holy Spirit, not of the human will. (Galatians 5:23)

How should we respond?

1. Do I TRUST that God is Sovereign?
2. Am I CONVINCED that God has absolute control over my life and the things that happen?
3. Am I ASSURED that God always has my best interests in mind – even when things get really hard for me?

1. Sometimes God has to allow us to be troubled in order to get our attention. These moments are actually great, unrealized blessings.
2. God ensures that His faithful servants are remembered. The bride of Christ must be faithful.
3. God demands (and deserves) all the credit. Joseph is not the story here, God is the story. He is the provider of all. Whether wisdom, riches, or abundance, that is ONLY provided by God.
4. God will make us fruitful in the land of our affliction. God ultimately placed Joseph in a position of power and blessed him.
5. God knows what He is doing.
6. The humble servant of God does not exalt himself.
7. Meekness stems from absolute trust in God’s goodness and control over every situation. The gentle person is not occupied with self at all. This is a work of the Holy Spirit, not of the human will.
