Read Esther 10

1. If you could summarize the book of Esther in one sentence, what would you say?

2. What are three practical "takeaways" for you from our study of the book of Esther?

3. What have you learned about God's providence and sovereignty in the book of Esther? How have you been encouraged to trust that God is always working in the circumstances of your life? Share and give testimony to God's faithfulness in your life.

4. Read Esther 4:14 How are you challenged to approach your “for such a time as this” moments that God gives you in the future?

6. As you think back over the book of Esther, what in particular stood out to you about the impact that Esther and Mordecai had on others lives and how has that motivated you personally?

5. Read Esther 10:3 Describe a time when you “worked for the good” of someone or “spoke up for the welfare of someone”. What impact did that have on the individual? What impact did that have on you?

7. C.T. Studd~ “Only one life, it will soon be past, only what’s done for Christ will last.”
How does our study of Esther motivate you to live and are there changes that you are challenged to make for your life to have the greatest impact on others?

8. Close your time together in prayer.
